DAILY GAZETTE.

Speech of Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson.

On Saturday last, the Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson addressed a large gathering of the yeomanry of Tompkins and adjoining counties, at Ithaca. We extract the following patriotic sentiment from the address:

"Our institutions are now menaced with destruction. Is it by a foreign foe? No; it has stood the thunder storm and defied the world in arms, and now it is to be destroyed, if destroyed it must be, by the insidious worm of ambition that is gnawing at its heart. Those who have been reared under this government, who have been pampered at its treasury, upon whose brows have been wreathed the choicest laurels, are tearing its heart, corroding its very vitals. And we are told that they are brethren, and that there must be no contention with them. Yes, they are our brethren. But shall we stand tamely by and see them bathe their hands in the blood of our venerable mother? No; she must be defended at all hazards from these murderous parricides. And the crime is greater and more heinous because they are brothers. If they were remorseless savages, or prowling Arabs, they might have a better apology to offer. But they are attempting to overthrow her who gave them existence, and nursed them in the lap of indulgence, and dandled them on the knee, and placed arms in their hands to defend her, with which they attempt to destroy her. Yes, they are our brethren. But they are not the first beings who have rebelled. There was rebellion even in heaven—blind, heedless, haughty, dark ambition caused Satan to rebel there—for just about the same cause as this rebellion. And the end of this rebellion will be the same. Those who instituted it will be hurled down to darkness and chains forever by an indignant and outraged people.

When this rebellion reared its snaky head, the whole American people trembled. We felt the earth throb, and heave, and beat as with the convulsions of a volcano. I found it, perhaps, more difficult than any individual in the United States, if not in the world, so far as personal convenience or considerations were concerned, and personal friendships, and domestic relations, and kindred associations could influence, to take ground against this rebellion.

Many years in the senate of the United States, friendships had grown up, and the course of public affairs had clustered about me southern sympathies which gave me a position in the southern states that no other man in the north or south held. For myself, therefore, I found it more difficult for these reasons to sever the ties than any other one could have done; but, in a patriotic cause, I did not find it patriotic at all. With the very first booming of the gun that fired upon Sumter, I declared that I was in the field against the rebellion.

When I see such an assemblage as this, it tells no more. It speaks to the heart more eloquently than all the tongues of preachers and speakers; than all the lessons the press can give—it tells me that the popular heart is sound to the core. I see before me and all around me trembling old age leaning upon his staff; stalwart manhood, with strong muscles in his arm, youth, ready to bare his bosom in battle; woman, with her gentle and anxious face, pleading for her country;—maiden, trembling, fearing that some great calamity awaits their happy family, and little children, with their cunning, inquiring eyes wishing to know why this vast commotion, and why that old man with grey hairs talks so earnestly on a subject in which they intuitively feel danger, but do not fully comprehend. Ah, my fair haired boy, it is that this government may be saved to you, that its blessings of liberty may not be wrested from you, but that your little eyeballs may not be blasted nor scared, nor your heart wrung with this accursed destroyer, disunion! that no evil shall come to blast these fair and fertile fields.

I feel strong in the pride of my position, not of myself, but as your representative, and representative of the national sentiment. I have stood in the high places of the land, in senates and in forums, with the great and honored of the land—the Clays, the Websters, the Bentons, and the Calhouns—and I feel that I stand on higher ground to-day, as a free American citizen, vindicating the integrity of our government against traitors and their rebellion, than ever before. Flunky politicians and bastard democrats fear I am going to my political funeral. Well, I shall have, from present appearances, a pretty handsome procession, and don't want them for mourners. You know perfectly well what have been my political antecedents. It is not material for the purposes of this question I lay aside my politics; I ask you to lay aside yours: I shall not go politically. I do not ask you to come to me, and any one who will attempt to manufacture politics out of this matter, or drag political parties into it, is no patriot—is a schemer and a little better than those who assail the country with arms. As to the Administration, it was not the Administration of my choosing. I care nothing for that.—Where it is right I mean to sustain it; where it is strong, I mean to aid it; where it is not strong, I will help it to be stronger.—And it is the duty of every good citizen to stay up the hands of the Administration in order to that it may do its whole and perfect work.

But no; we hear that Mr. Lincoln is not able to conduct the Government successfully. For Heaven's sake let us take right hold and help it—not attempt to discourage and put it down. And it is my opinion that every friend of the Administration should help, and that every opponent of the Administration should help it two fold—all should take hold and persist in this great work not as Democrats, not as Republicans, not as Americans, not Abolitionists, nor anything else, except as American citizens, having a destiny, a country, a heritage that concerns us all.

How cowardly, how treacherous in us if we were to dislocate or enable others to destroy this Government. Divide this Union! Commence by dividing and all is lost! Sever the human frame and then ask the head and lower limbs to perform their functions as before. Let a great rebellion succeed, you must let lesser rebellions succeed from every quarter—from State to State, from county to county, from town to town, down to your very school district, and finally if you have a horse and another wants it he will go and take it.

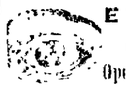

But it is no time for honyed words or phrases—it is no time for sugar-coated pills—you must give medicine that will take effect and operate pretty thoroughly too. Mr. Lincoln has been much complained of that he has suspended the habeas corpus, and has interfered with the private rights, and has curtailed the liberty of the press, and has done other things of which they complain. Now, as his opponent, I sustain him most in the very acts they condemn. (Cheers.) His act that I approve of most is his suspending the habeas corpus; and I have said, and I repeat that if he had suspended the traitors it related to, in some cases, I would have been glad of it. I uphold him in arresting the voice of a traitorous press which was attempting to foster and encourage and stimulate treason. (Cheers.) I agree to his arresting and consigning to prison those villians who are acting as spies and attempting to destroy our Government. (Cheers, and cries of 'Good, good.') I sustain him fully and cheerfully in it. It is war a power, nothing more or less. A wicked, treasonable, rebellion fastens a terrible war on the Government and then whines and pets others to whimper for it, that they are arrested that their treason is blocked. Mr. Lincoln would have deserved impeachment if he had not exercised these power.—They were exercised by General Jackson, and they have been exercised by every military commander who has had to ancitery to deal with in the history of the world.

TESTIMONIAL.
To Whom it May Concern:
I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I came to Beloit in attempt to restore my sight by operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr Folsom, as a skilful oculist, I was induced to come to Janesville, though with very little hope of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost perfect restoration of sight to my eyes. He has made a professional operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

The great measures of a Pacific railroad on the central route; free lands for the landless; the improvement of river navigation; retrenchment and reform in all the departments of the federal government, will be urged with that zeal and devotion which have won for the Democrat its present position. On all questions it will boldly espouse the right, and only seek its advancement through the public good.

ITS NEWS, LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENTS, shall be all that readers could desire. The Political, Agricultural and Manufacturing interests of the country shall receive due attention.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Speech of Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson.

On Saturday last, the Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson addressed a large gathering of the yeomanry of Tompkins and adjoining counties, at Ithaca. We extract the following patriotic sentiment from the address:

"Our institutions are now menaced with destruction. Is it by a foreign foe? No; it has stood the thunder storm and defied the world in arms, and now it is to be destroyed, if destroyed it must be, by the insidious worm of ambition that is gnawing at its heart. Those who have been reared under this government, who have been pampered at its treasury, upon whose brows have been wreathed the choicest laurels, are tearing its heart, corroding its very vitals. And we are told that they are brethren, and that there must be no contention with them. Yes, they are our brethren. But shall we stand tamely by and see them bathe their hands in the blood of our venerable mother? No; she must be defended at all hazards from these murderous parricides. And the crime is greater and more heinous because they are brothers. If they were remorseless savages, or prowling Arabs, they might have a better apology to offer. But they are attempting to overthrow her who gave them existence, and nursed them in the lap of indulgence, and caudled them on the knee, and placed arms in their hands to defend her, with which they attempt to destroy her. Yes, they are our brethren. But they are not the first beings who have rebelled. There was rebellion even in heaven—blind, heedless, haughty, dark ambition caused Satan to rebel there—for just about the same cause as this rebellion. And the end of this rebellion will be the same. Those who instituted it will be hurried down to darkness and chains forever by an indignant and outraged people.

When this rebellion reared its snaky head, the whole American people trembled. We felt the earth throb, and heave, and beat as with the convulsions of a volcano. I found it, perhaps, more difficult than any individual in the United States, if not in the world, so far as personal convenience or considerations were concerned, and personal friendships, and domestic relations, and kindred associations could influence, to take ground against this rebellion.

Many years in the senate of the United States, friendships had grown up, and the course of public affairs had clustered about me southern sympathies which gave me a position in the southern states that no other man in the north or south held. For myself, therefore, I found it more difficult for these reasons to sever these ties than any other one could have done; but, in a patriotic cause, I did not find it patriotic at all. With the very first booming of the gun that fired upon Sumter, I declared that I was in the field against the rebellion.

When I see such an assemblage as this, it tells no more. It speaks to the heart more eloquently than all the tongues of preachers and speakers; than all the lessons the press can give—it tells me that the popular heart is sound to the core. I see before me and all around me trembling old age leaning upon his staff; stalwart manhood, with strong muscles in his arm; youth, ready to bare his bosom in battle; woman, with her gentle and anxious face, pleading for her country;—maidens, trembling, fearing that some great calamity awaits their happy family, and little children, with their cunning, inquiring eyes wishing to know why this vast concourse, and why that old man with grey hairs talks so earnestly on a subject in which they intuitively feel danger, but do not fully comprehend. Ah, my fair haired boy, it is that this government may be saved to you, that its blessings of liberty may not be wrested from you, but that your little eyeballs may not be blasted nor seared, nor your heart wrung with this accursed destroyer, disunion! that no evil shall come to blast these fair and fertile fields.

I feel strong in the pride of my position, not of myself, but as your representative, and representative of the national sentiment. I have stood in the high places of the land, in senates and in forums, with the great and honored of the land—the Clays, the Websters, the Bentons, and the Calhouns—and I feel that I stand on higher ground to-day, as a free American citizen, vindicating the integrity of our goverment against traitors and their rebellion, than ever before. Flunky politicians and bastard democrats fear I am going to my political funeral. Well, I shall have, from present appearances, a pretty handsome procession, and don't want them for mourners. You know perfectly well what have been my political antecedents. It is not material for the purposes of this question.

I lay aside my politics; I ask you to lay aside yours; I shall not go politically; I do not ask you to come to me, and any one who will attempt to manufacture politics out of this matter, or drag political parties into it, is no patriot—is a schemer and a little better than those who assail the country with arms. As to the Administration, it was not the Administration of my choosing. I care nothing for that.—Where it is right I mean to sustain it; where it is strong, I mean to aid it; where it is not strong, I will help it to be stronger.—And it is the duty of every good citizen to stay up the hands of the Administration in order to that it may do its whole and perfect work.

But no; we hear that Mr. Lincoln is not able to conduct the Government successfully. For Heaven's sake let us take right hold and help it—not attempt to discourage and put it down. And it is my opinion that every friend of the Administration should help, and that every opponent of the Administration should help it two fold—all should take hold and persist in this great work not as Democrats, not as Republicans, not as Americans, not Abolitionists, nor anything else, except as American citizens, having a destiny, a country, a heritage that concerns us all.

How cowardly, how treacherous in us if we were to dislocate or enable others to destroy this Government. Divide this Union! Commence by dividing and all is lost! Sever the human frame and then ask the head and lower limbs to perform their functions as before. Let a great rebellion succeed, you must let lesser rebellions succeed from every quarter—from State to State, from county to county, from town to town, down to your very school district, and finally if you have a horse and another wants it he will go and take it.

But it is no time for honyed words or phrases—it is no time for sugar-coated pills—you must give medicine that will take effect and operate pretty thoroughly too. Mr. Lincoln has been much complained of that he has suspended the habeas corpus, and has interfered with the private rights, and has curtailed the liberty of the press, and has done other things of which they complain. Now, as his opponent, I sustain him most in the very acts they condemn. (Cheers.) His act that I approve of most is his suspending the habeas corpus; and I have said, and I repeat that if he had suspended the traitors it related to, in come cases, I would have been glad of it. I uphold him in arresting the voice of a traitorous press which was attempting to foster and encourage and stimulate treason. (Cheers.) I agree to his arresting and consigning to prison those villians who are acting as spies and attempting to destroy our Government. (Cheers, and cries of "Good, good.") I sustain him fully and cheerfully in it. It is war a power, nothing more or less. A wicked, treasonable, rebellion fastens a terrible war on the Government and then whines and gets others to whimper for it, that they are arrested that their treason is blocked. Mr. Lincoln would have deserved impeachment if he had not exercised these powers.—They were exercised by General Jackson, and they have been exercised by every military commander who has had treachery to deal with in the history of the world.

TESTIMONIAL.

To Whom it May Concern:

I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom, as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of Sight to one eye. He afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

The Blairs and Fremont.

The arrest of Col. F. P. Blair, Jr., by Gen. Fremont, will take people generally by surprise. The Blairs have been the warm personal friends of Fremont. It was through the influence of the elder Blair that Fremont became the candidate of the republican party for the presidency in 1856, and it is understood that the Blair family urged his appointment as Major General of the Western Department. The quarrel, therefore, out of which has grown the arrest of Col. Blair, must have been of recent origin, and as it exists between those who have been very intimate, it will doubtless be bitter in its character; especially on the part of the Blairs, who are somewhat proud and arrogant in their natures. The visit of Mrs. Fremont to Washington, and of Montgomery Blair to St. Louis, it is said, had reference to this difficulty, and not to the difference of opinion between the president and Gen. Fremont in relation to the proclamation of the latter. The Union men of St. Louis, especially the Germans, are said to sustain Fremont, and to attribute to F. P. Blair, Jr., the misfortunes which the Union cause has suffered in Missouri.

Western Virginia.

The Union forces in Western Virginia have been quite successful in several encounters with the enemy, within a few days. It is probable that Generals Rozencrans and Cox have formed a junction ere this, and that they will make an advance. Floyd and Wise are in rapid retreat towards Lewisburg, where they have to cross the Greenbrier river, to get away from the combined Union army. The poor success of the rebel generals in Western Virginia, at this season, must convince them that their safety requires an immediate retreat, and we shall not be surprised to hear that they have given up the enterprise entirely and retired to the east side of the mountains. If we had a strong federal army, with abundant means of transportation, a demonstration might be made upon Beauregard from this direction.

The government is in receipt of satisfactory evidence that no privateer has been fitted out in a British port, notwithstanding the common assertion to the contrary.

A Sacred Thing.

Mat. Carpenter, in his letter on slavery and the war, says that slavery is thought by some to be a "sacred thing." This must be so. We may confiscate a rebel's lands, cattle, horses, grain, ships and money—we may take his personal rights from him, or even his life, and it is all right; but the moment a rebel's slave is touched there is a thrill of horror sent through the mind. There is an awe for this assumed right in the ownership of a man which is found existing all over the country. It amounts to a superstition, and is almost equal to that which fills the mind of the poor pagan when he looks upon his wooden god. Inasmuch as this reverence for the system of slavery is universal and national in this country, ought it not to be represented in a tangible form somewhere, so that its devotees could have their thoughts directed to one point, in their devotions. Suppose we have an "ebony idol" set up at Washington, or some other central point, for this purpose.

Government Telegraphic Dispatches.

The telegraphic operator in this city informs us that no messages will be received for the war department at Washington, unless prepaid. This rule is rendered necessary in consequence of the following order:

The following order was issued by the war department to day to all telegraph offices:

WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE }
WASHINGTON, Sept. 10, 1861. }

GENERAL ORDER.—The attention of officers and all other persons having business with the war department or its different branches, is called to the excessive use of the telegraph in cases where it is entirely unnecessary, and in which the business would be much more certainly and correctly transmitted through the mail line. Nine out of ten of the dispatches received are of this character, while the telegraph should be used only in cases of urgent and imperative necessity where the delay of the mail would be actually prejudicial to the public interest. No dispatches will be noticed here unless this necessity is recognized, and in such cases they must be paid for by the party sending them, who may look for remuneration to the quartermaster's department on producing a copy of the dispatch to show that it was upon public business, and that the matter demanded this mode of transaction. By order.

(Signed) L. THOMAS,
Adjutant General.
GEO. D. RUGGLES, Ass't Adj. Gen.

FROM WASHINGTON.—We had a call this morning from Fenton Stevens, who has been acting as assistant quartermaster of the fifth regiment, during the illness of the regular quartermaster. He left Washington on Friday, and says the Light Guard boys are all well and in fine spirits. Gen. King's brigade occupies an advanced position on the right wing of the army, about three miles from the Chain Bridge. They have built a fortification which they call Fort Advance. It is superior to Fort Corcoran, and before Arlington Heights are captured, considerable of a fight will take place in its vicinity. Mr. Stevens says there are immense preparations for the defence of Washington, and that there is not the slightest probability that the enemy can succeed in taking the city. The health of the troops is good. The second regiment is getting along well under their new officers.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL.—D. H. Johnson, Esq., of La Crosse, member of the last legislature, has been appointed assistant attorney general in place of J. O. Culver, Esq., the latter having accepted an appointment as paymaster in the army.

TREASURY NOTES.—Mr. Stevens, who has just returned from Washington, showed us some five and ten dollar treasury notes. They are about the same size and have the general appearance of bank notes. The government redeems them on demand at the office of the assistant treasurer in New York. Mr. S. informs us that they are more popular than gold among the soldiers, and that large amounts will be sent home by the volunteers.

GREAT SUCCESS OF THE NATIONAL LOAN.—The feature of the day has been the demand for the treasury notes, which summed up $1,037,500. This is fifty per cent larger than the average since the loan was called for, and is a hopeful sign for the future of the market. With what is subscribed elsewhere the supply of money to the government by this means must be largely in excess of its disbursements. With victory attending our armies, New York alone could supply the government with all the means it required.

So far very few of the demand notes have been presented for payment in this city, a fact which goes to show public confidence in them. It is evident that the country would stand a large issue of these notes if done judiciously.

There is a liberal demand for all descriptions, and prices are advanced to 90¼a90⅜ for the coupon 6 per cents of 1881; 90a90¼ for the registered, and 80a80¾ for the 5 per cents of 1874.

THE PRESIDENT AND FREMONT.—A dispatch from the private secretary of General Fremont to a gentleman in Cincinnati, is conclusive that General Fremont has not been removed from his command.

But the telegraph brings us the the President's proclamation, repudiating that part of General Fremont's proclamation of Aug. 3d relating to the confiscation of property and the liberation of slaves. The President falls back on the act of Congress which is far behind Fremont's proclamation.

We fear the effect of this action. It will do much to revive secession Missouri.—The men who are secretly urging on the rebels in Missouri were terrified at Fremont's proclamation. The order of the President will relieve them of their fears, and they will again renew their covert proceeding. Even if Fremont has gone a little farther than the President desired, it would have been better to sustained him.—Backward steps never had any good results.—Chicago Post, 15th inst., Douglas Democratic paper.

A MINT OF MONEY BY EXPRESS.—The Chicago Tribune of to-day says: "Sunday morning Mr. Phelps, private agent of the United States Express Company, came into this city, having in charge shipments of gold from California and Pike's Peak, to the amount of [illegible] dollars, and a large amount of bullion and money packages for eastern consignees, among these latter, nine goodly bags of gold dust, weighing one hundred and fifty pounds apiece. This shipment comes from Council Bluffs, over land to Cedar Rapids, thence to Rock Island. This is a new route for such shipments, owing to interruptions on the Hannibal and St. Joseph route through Missouri.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.

Leavenworth papers of the 11th give the following account of the late engagement between Rains and Montgomery. On the 2d inst. 600 rebel forces under Rains approached Fort Scott. Messenger despatched to Montgomery, who had 500 men, says he pursued Rains 11 miles, killing several of his men, when coming upon the main body of the enemy the battle commenced, the rebels having five cannon, Montgomery one howitzer only. The fight lasted two hours, when Montgomery slowly retreated, keeping up a running fire until nightfall. The enemy's force is reported by prisoners at from 2,000 to 3,000.

Twenty negroes have been declared free under Gen. Fremont's proclamation, being property of leading rebels.

Col. Cook, with 1800 regulars, left Fort Laramie on the 2d inst. for Fort Leavenworth.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.

The schooner Mary Wood, from the West Indies, owned in North Carolina, arrived here to-day in charge of Prize Master Nicholson, the crew consisting principally of members of Gen. Butler's and the naval brigade. Her cargo is salt, sugar and molasses. She was captured at Cape Hatteras.

To-morrow will be celebrated in this city as the anniversary of the federal constitution by parade of home guards and an oration by Hon. Geo. M. Dallas, at Independence Square. There will be a general suspension of business.

FARTHER POINT, Sept. 16.

The steamship Anglo Saxon arrived off this port this evening. She left Liverpool at 11 o'clock A. M. on the 5th and Londonderry on the 6th inst. The Nova Scotia reached Londonderry on the evening of the 4th. Political news by the Anglo Saxon is unimportant. The London Times says the impression seemed to be very general at Liverpool that passengers to or from the United States are required to be cautioned at the present juncture against any ready expression of opinion on the civil war.—The policy of making a short time precaution against the contingencies of the cotton supplies and of the glutted state of a distant market for manufacturing goods continued to make progress in Lancashire.

The Times in an editorial on the present aspect of American affairs argues that enough has transpired to show that the subjugation of the south is next to impossible, and submission improbable.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.

Special to Post.—There are no important movements on the other side of the Potomac, but military authorities expect important feints to be made at different points along the line.

It is understood that several of our army officers are busily engaged in returning fugitive slaves to their masters.

There are rumors this morning that Gen. Fremont has resigned his command, and that his action has been taken in consequence of the restrictions placed upon his proclamation by the letter of the President. Mayor Berrett, of this city, proposes to resign the office of mayor.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.

The Baltimore American of this morning has a letter from the Point of Rocks, dated Sunday, giving additional particulars of the Doenstown engagement. Col. Geary commanded in person. Our loss is one killed, and five slightly wounded. Our troops behaved like veterans. Companies B, E and I of the 28th Pennsylvania regiment and two companies of the 13th New York comprised our force. During the fight a rebel was seen taking aim at Col. Geary, when the Colonel grasped a rifle from a soldier and shot the rebel on the spot. Our troops are in fine spirits.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.

It is stated that one of the schooners lately captured at Hatteras Inlet was from Boston, with a cargo of boots and shoes.

The light house on Body Island has been blown up, and that on Oregon Inlet abandoned by the rebels.

The bark Chas. Brewer, and schooners Mary E. Hopkins, F. H. Russell, and Julia A. Rich, were seized to day.

Seven southerners were arrested aboard the City of Manchester, this morning, who have been profusely expressing secession sentiments on the voyage. Their baggage was inspected, but nothing treasonable being found, they were released.

Abbe McMaster, late editor of the American Journal, took up compulsory lodgings in the classic shades of Fort Lafayette today.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16.

Col. F. P. Blair, Jr., was ordered yesterday by the provost marshal to report himself under arrest on a general charge of using disrespectful language when alluding to his superior officer, with reference to the removal of Gen. Fremont.

The Democrat of this morning has the following:

"The removal of Gen. Fremont we do not think has been seriously considered by the administration. They have undoubtedly charges preferred which will be duly and properly investigated, but these proceedings, we are now satisfied, have never looked to a result such as his removal from this department. His extraordinary energy and efficiency are too highly appreciated by the government, and his measures are too deeply seated in the affections of the people of the loyal states to admit the probability of any such event."

The Republican learns that Col. Marshal of Lexington, a few days since took possession of a quantity of property belonging to the state, including books, papers, and the great seal of the state which Jackson took from Jefferson City.

After a defeat of state forces at Booneville by Lyon, Jackson publicly announced his intention to establish the capitol at Lexington, claiming that he had full authority to do so.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16.

Col. Blair's arrest was made by Provost Marshal McKinstry, by order of Gen. Fremont. The charge is, writing letters to members of the cabinet, in defamation of his superior officer, being an infraction of the articles of war.

As between the administration and Fremont, and the Blairs and Fremont, the sympathy of the most loyal men here, especially, that of the Germans, greatly preponderates in the general's favor.

The quarrel is regarded by everybody, save the secessionists, as a great misfortune, and the hope is general that mutual explanations will adjust it, and everything go on harmoniously.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.

The whole story about Fremont is not yet told. There is a question of courtesy between him and the president, and one of extravagance in the management of his department. It is said that the president, when advised of his forthcoming proclamation, wished him to withhold it until the cabinet could consult. It appeared the next morning. [We dont believe that yarn.—Tribune] His activity has nevertheless been very great.

Military men in high authority still consider an attack imminent; but the prevalent opinion of the army is that the rebels will not venture it unless in the madness of desperation. No one doubts that an assault on our entrenchments will be suicide. The indications of a movement are less than two days since.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16.

Postmaster General Blair, and Quartermaster General Meigs, left for Washington this morning. It is understood that the precise charge on which Colonel Blair was arrested is insubordination in communicating, while an army officer, with authorities at Washington, making complaints against and using disreputable language towards General Fremont, with a view of effecting his removal. It is stated that letters written by Colonel Blair are now in possession of General Fremont.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 16.

The police are arresting secession members of the Legislature as fast as they reach Baltimore on their way to Frederick.

There will therefore be no quorum present. It is presumed that all the secession members will be arrested. There are fifteen of the House and three of the Senate, to be arrested. Several of these are said to have fled from the State.

DARNSTOWN, Md., Sept. 14.

There are floating rumors of Gen. Johnston having been greatly strengthened along the river line. There has been increased activity in all departments of this division within the past week.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.

The Ellsworth Fire Zouaves are to be mustered out of service. Their insubordination has rendered them unfit for service.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 16.

Subscriptions for the national loan opened to-day in this city. A good start was made. Twenty-nine subscribers have taken $145,000.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 19.

Three hundred new muskets were found buried in the rear of the old theater, supposed to have been concealed by Kane's police after April 19th.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 11.

The Richmond Examiner of the 11th says that 156 Yankee prisoners were sent to Castle Pinckney, South Carolina—among them Col. Wilcox, of the Michigan First; Col. Corcoran, of the New York Sixty ninth; Lieut. Col. Neff, of the Second Kentucky; Major John W. Potter, of the Thirty Eighth New York; Rev. G. W. Dodge, chaplain of the Eleventh New York; Rev. H. Eddy, chaplain of the Second Connecticut; Surgeon Griswold, of the thirty-eighth New York; Grey, of the United States army; Connelly, of the Second New York; Harris, of the Second Rhode Island; Captains Donney, of the Eleventh New York; Connolly, of the Twenty-second New York; Fish, of the Thirty-second New York; Farnsh, of the Seventy-ninth New York; Drew, of the Second Vermont; Shurtliff, of the Seventh Ohio; L. Gordon, of the Eleventh Massachusetts; Whitington and Jenkins; Lieut. Toy, of the Twenty-fifth New York; Hamblin (son of the actor of that name) of the Thirty eighth New York; Underhill, of the Eleventh New York; Worcester, of the Eighty first New York; Dempsey, of the Second New York; Wilcox, of the Seventh Ohio; Gordon, of the Second Dragoons, United States army; Caleff, of the Eleventh Massachusetts; Connolly, of the Sixty-ninth New York. Captain Rickets, of the United States army was to have accompanied the party, but is not sufficiently recovered from his wounds to undertake the journey.

Serious fears are entertained for the crops of the south. The rains of August are reported as the heaviest and the most general ever known in the south, and have been very disastrous. The Savannah Republican claims a fair rice crop, but admits that the continuous rains have damaged it somewhat.

The Baton Rouge Advocate says the cotton crops in that vicinity are literally covered with the army worm, and that the fate of the crop will be sealed in a few days, for the rain and heavy atmosphere are favorable to the worm.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.

The confederates at Fairfax issue rations for one hundred and eighty thousand men daily.

Among their regiments are Longstreet's, Major Walton's, Brigadier General Wallace's, Hartstein's and Wigfall's Texas, and Gen. Toomb's Georgia Brigade.

The administration is not satisfied with the explanation of the Spanish minister about the proclamation of the captain general of Cuba allowing vessels with the confederate flag to enter Cuban ports.

Such action is regarded as sufficient casus belli, and has occupied the attention of the president and secretary of state the entire day to day.

There is good reason to believe that Spain will recognize the southern confederacy in a very short time.

ELKWATER, Va., Sept. 16.

The body of Col. John A. Washington was sent over to the enemy yesterday, under a flag of truce, which, on its way, was met by a similar flag coming from the enemy for the purpose of obtaining information as to his condition.

On the 12th a detachment of 300 men from the Fourteenth Indiana and the Twenty fourth and Twenty-fifth Ohio regiments dispersed three Tennessee regiments under Gen. Anderson, on the west side of Cheat Mountain, completely routing them, killing eighty, and obtaining most of their equipments. Our loss was eight killed. The enemy made an advance on Elkwater the same day, with a force supposed to be 15,000, but were driven back by detachments of men from the Fifteenth Indiana, Third and Sixth Ohio regiments, and shells from Loomis' battery. They retired some eight or ten miles.

A strong force of Arkansas, Tennessee, and Virginia troops also threatened the east side of Cheat Mountain, but have not yet had a general engagement.

A shell thrown from one of Loomis' guns two miles into the enemy's camp killed ten and wounded four.

The Thirteenth Indiana Regiment had a severe skirmish with superior numbers of the enemy on the 12th, and killed ten or twelve, with trifling loss.

As the enemy advanced on Elkwater, the column was handsomely checked by a detachment of the Seventeenth Indiana.

Lieut. Merell, of the topographical engineers, was taken prisoner by the rebels, while on his way to Cheat Mountain.

CAIRO, Sept. 16.

A deserter from the rebel camp at Columbus, Ky., reports that on Friday last the rebels, 10,000 strong, under Gen. Johnston had marching orders—their destination being Paducah. He also reports that Jeff. Thompson's forces are at Belmont, Missouri.

The crew of the steamer John Gault, seized by the government, were released today.

Eight hundred infantry and four pieces of Capt. Taylor's light artillery, under command of Col. Ogleby, made a reconnoisance below Norfolk, Mo., on Saturday. They saw 300 mounted rebels, who ran on seeing the federal troops.

All is quiet at Paducah.

MAYSVILLE, Sept. 14.

Hon. Joseph Holt, John J. Crittenden, Andy Johnson and Horace Maynard are advertised to speak at a Union barbacue near this place, on Saturday, the 21st inst.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 15.

Gen. Zollicoffer telegraphed to Gov. Magoffin that he had occupied the three long mountains in Knox county, Ky., and would not leave unless the federal troops did.

Special dispatch to the New York World.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.

It is more than ever evident that the rebels do not contemplate an advance. Time will soon demonstrate the correctness of this statement.

Col. Miles is busily engaged in procuring evidence for a court martial to investigate his conduct at Bull Run. The court meets on the 15th inst.

Gen. McClellan recognizes the fact that the especially vulnerable point of the enemy is on the Atlantic coast, and will accordingly wait the auspicious moment when a tremendous force is to flank the enemy from the sea, and hurl its columns like a regiments of thunderbolts over the "sacred soil," while Rosencranz acts in concert upon another wing of the enemy. Then, in the general scattering which must result, McClellan will appreciate and improve the opportunity, and the rebels will see him at the head of his army outside the intrenchments.

We have facilities for obtaining information from the rebels, and material that will be called into action against them at the proper time, of which they are obviously in the profoundest ignorance, and must remain so for a while longer.

It is evident that the rebels can at any moment close the navigation of the Potomac. Some of our high government officials are in the habit of visiting Fortress Monroe occasionally, and it is possible that a cabinet minister or general may be captured on the river some fine day.

Those who express concern about defraying the expenses of the war forget that all is not expenditure. The treasury department is now in daily receipt of about half a million of dollars from the proceeds of small notes alone. When demand notes are received they will be re-issued instead of being cancelled.

Several companies of Berdan's sharpshooters have arrived. They will be distributed in detachments among the brigades, for the special purpose of picking off the leading rebel officers, in case of an engagement.

General McClellan makes it a rule to inspect the entire line from Alexandria to the Chain Bridge, at least three times a week, and this, with the reviews of the different brigades, keeps him in the saddle a good deal of the time.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DESPATCHES.

FREDERICK, Md., Sept. 16.

The legislature meets to-morrow. There will not be a quorum. No secession ordinance is prepared, nor will one be passed. The Maryland secessionists have nothing to hope for from the legislature.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.

Lieut. Col. Atwood of the 6th Wisconsin volunteers was honorably discharged from service to day, in consequence of physical inability to endure the fatigues of camp life. His retirement is universally regretted by the regiment, for he was an able officer in the volunteer service.

The following Colonels have been appointed to take command of the Kentucky infantry and cavalry regiments. Thomas Bramlow, 1st infantry; S. S. Fry, 2d infantry; S. T. Dowan, 3d infantry; Frank Wolford, 1st cavalry.

While the government of the United is doing the best they can, under the rules of war, to take care of and protect the health of the rebel prisoners now in their possession, Jeff. Davis, or Beauregard, or Johnson, or all of them, have sent our prisoners to Castle Pinckney, the nearest fort to the city of Charleston, South Carolina, where fever prevails extensively at this season of the year. If our officers whom they have taken prisoners and confined in Castle Pinckney survive the present season it will be contrary to the well known theory of southerners, for they have always asserted as a reason why slave labor must be employed, that northerners could not survive the malaria and fever that prevail in that section. The rebels may suppose that the confinement of the officers of the Union army in Charleston may prove a protection to that place. We shall see.

Tribune's special.—Last evening the rebels approached our left wing in force, destroyed several grain racks and other property, and captured a number of cattle belonging to Union farmers.

In the evening, on a false alarm, General Slocum's brigade was under arms in four minutes. It turned out that several contrabands had arrived on their masters horses, and that some of our men had found in the bushes an intelligent free negro from Fairfax, who says the greater part of the rebels are arriving between Fairfax and Alexandria, where they have thrown up breastworks. He heard Lawyer Hunter, owner of Hunter Mills, say the rebels would take Arlington Heights and Alexandria this week with 200,000 men, and from there hell Washington.

After the fight at Lewinsville Beauregard was sent for to bring reinforcements from Manassas, as they feared we would overpower them. He came with a considerable body of troops.

Owing to information received by the post office department that the Hannibal and St. Joseph railroad is entirely unprotected from the rebels, and that they have St Joseph in their hands, it has ordered the California mail to be carried via Davenport and Council Bluffs. The department has also received information that all the officers and employees of the overland mail company are rebels.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 17.

The names of the killed and wounded at Darnestown have not yet been received.—The first account of the affair was received by the American from an anonymous correspondence, and was printed at too late an hour to obtain any verifications.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 17.

The republicans here have concluded to abandon their party organization and take up any good sound Union men in the coming local election. Gen. Theodore Runyon, who was a Douglas elector, is a prominent candidate for mayor. The peace party have made their nominations, coupled with resolutions sustaining the government, the full force of which may be appreciated when it is known that their candidate for mayor expressed the opinion that this war, on the part of the south, is as just and holy as was ours of the Revolution.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 17.

The Old Point boat has arrived, but brings no news of interest. The news of the repulse of the rebels in Western Virginia caused great rejoicing here among Union men.

FREDERICK, Md., Sept. 17.

Not more than twenty-five members of the two houses of the Maryland legislature are yet here. Both houses will meet and adjourn till to morrow. The impression is that neither house, for want of a quorum, will be able to transact any business.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 17.

The anniversary of the adoption of the constitution is being duly celebrated here. Salutes were fired at sunrise and at noon. The Home Guard also turned out and paraded the streets 3,000 strong, escorting the orator of the day, Hon. Geo. M. Dallas, to Independence Square.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 17.

In the house a message from Gov. Magoffin was received, communicating a telegraphic dispatch from Gen. Zollicoffer, announcing that the government of Tennessee demanded the occupation of Cumberland Gap, and the three long mountains in Kentucky, and that he had done so, and should retain his position until the federal forces were withdrawn and federal camps broken up.

Also a message from Thomas C. Reynolds, Lieutenant Governor of Missouri, asking what course he intended to take in view of the occupation of the Mississippi river below the mouth of the Ohio by the federal forces, in violation of her neutrality.

No southern newspapers received tonight.

Correspondence of the Janesville Gazette.

Quavers from the Capital.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13, 1861.

I send you a short letter to day by assistant quartermaster Stevens, who returns to "tender his resignation"—the commission he received from Gov. Randall not being recognized by the war department. If I may judge from the amount of labor which Mr. Stevens has performed since he left Wisconsin with the fifth regiment—"in season and out of season"—up to the last hour of the last day of his service, there certainly would seem in this particular case, a partly plausible necessity for the office of "assistant quartermaster!" so that Gov. Randall's action in the case may have been as reasonable as are the war department's general "regulations." And if I may further judge from what I have heard from many of the officers of the regiment, of the acceptable and efficient manner in which Mr. Stevens has performed his duties, the disappointment which this information has occasioned is full as severely felt by the regiment as by himself. One thing I will venture on my own responsibility—that his return to Wisconsin is not in any sense a "backing down" from a determination to make himself useful to the government in the present crisis, but rather to take a new start, in such a way as that his position, whatever it may be, shall be understood and accredited.

The news from western Virginia, Missouri and Kentucky, by late dispatches, is brightening the face of things here remarkably. Fremont telegraphs "the first gun in Kentucky in position!" Let the rebels strengthen their ramparts speedily. Let Pillow "dig his ditches" on the right side! for when Kentucky opens her batteries, there will be no party. "Neutrality" will give place to aggressive, radical, continued action, till not a rebel foot print is left to disgrace her soil.

There are ominous signs here; unquestionably things are ripening fast, and the harvest may have commenced before you receive this.

Excuse haste, as the train leaves in a few minutes.

Yours truly, A. G. ——.

The Memphis Appeal thus notifies Kentuckians of the purpose of the secessionists regarding the state:

"THE SOUTH NEEDS HER TERRITORY, AND MUST HAVE IT, THOUGH AT THE PRICE OF BLOOD AND CONQUEST."

MR. DICKINSON DECLINES.—The Syracuse Journal of Thursday says:

"We understand that the president of the People's Convention, yesterday received a telegraphic dispatch from Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson, declining any nomination by the convention, and saying that he thought he could be of more benefit to the patriotic cause in another way. In case Mr. Dickinson persists in his declination, the name of Lyman Tremain will probably be substituted as the candidate for attorney general."

MARRIED.

Republican State Convention.

A Republican State Convention will be held at the Capital, in the city of Madison, at 12 o'clock M., on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of September next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for state officers.

Each assembly district, under the new apportionment, will be entitled to two delegates in the convention.

The committee recommend that the primary meetings for the selection of delegates be held on or before the 14th day of September, and that the district committees issue early calls for such meetings, that the people may be thoroughly notified, and choose delegates who fairly reflect their wishes.

Chairman State Republican Central Com.

M., for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent said district in the Republican State Convention, to be held on the 25th inst.

By order of the Committee.

Town of Johnstown.

The legal voters of the town of Johnstown are requested to meet at the Johnstown Center House, on THURSDAY EVENING, September 19th, at 7 o'clock, to elect four delegates to the Assembly District Convention to be held at Emerald Grove, on Saturday, the 25th inst. at 2 o'clock P. M.

By order of Town Committee.

The Blairs and Fremont.

The arrest of Col. F. P. Blair, Jr., by Gen. Fremont, will take people generally by surprise. The Blairs have been the warm personal friends of Fremont. It was through the influence of the elder Blair that Fremont became the candidate of the republican party for the presidency in 1856, and it is understood that the Blair family urged his appointment as Major General of the Western Department. The quarrel, therefore, out of which has grown the arrest of Col. Blair, must have been of recent origin, and as it exists between those who have been very intimate, it will doubtless be bitter in its character; especially on the part of the Blairs, who are somewhat proud and arrogant in their natures. The visit of Mrs. Fremont to Washington, and of Montgomery Blair to St. Louis, it is said, had reference to this difficulty, and not to the difference of opinion between the president and Gen. Fremont in relation to the proclamation of the latter. The Union men of St. Louis, especially the Germans, are said to sustain Fremont, and to attribute to F. P. Blair, Jr., the misfortunes which the Union cause has suffered in Missouri.

Western Virginia.

The Union forces in Western Virginia have been quite successful in several encounters with the enemy, within a few days. It is probable that Generals Rozencrans and Cox have formed a junction ere this, and that they will make an advance. Floyd and Wise are in rapid retreat towards Lewisburg, where they have to cross the Greenbrier river, to get away from the combined Union army. The poor success of the rebel generals in Western Virginia, at this season, must convince them that their safety requires an immediate retreat, and we shall not be surprised to hear that they have given up the enterprise entirely and retired to the east side of the mountains. If we had a strong federal army, with abundant means of transportation, a demonstration might be made upon Beauregard from this direction.

The government is in receipt of satisfactory evidence that no privateer has been fitted out in a British port, notwithstanding the common assertion to the contrary.

A Sacred Thing.

Mat. Carpenter, in his letter on slavery and the war, says that slavery is thought by some to to be a "sacred thing." This must be so. We may confiscate a rebel's lands, cattle, horses, grain, ships and money—we may take his personal rights from him, or even his life, and it is all right; but the moment a rebel's slave is touched there is a thrill of horror sent through the mind. There is an awe for this assumed right in the ownership of a man which is found existing all over the country. It amounts to a superstition, and is almost equal to that which fills the mind of the poor pagan when he looks upon his wooden god. Inasmuch as this reverence for the system of slavery is universal and national in this country, ought it not to be represented in a tangible form somewhere, so that its devotees could have their thougts directed to one point, in their devotions. Suppose we have an "ebony idol" set up at Washington, or some other central point, for this purpose.

Government Telegraphic Dispatches.

The telegraphic operator in this city informs us that no messages will be received for the war department at Washington, unless prepaid. This rule is rendered necessary in consequence of the following order:

The following order was issued by the war department to-day to all telegraph offices:

WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, }
WASHINGTON, Sept. 10, 1861. }

GENERAL ORDER.—The attention of officers and all other persons having business with the war department or its different branches, is called to the excessive use of the telegraph in cases where it is entirely unnecessary, and in which the business would be much more certainly and correctly transmitted through the mail line. Nine out of ten of the dispatches received are of this character, while the telegraph should be used only in cases of urgent and imperative necessity where the delay of the mail would be actually prejudicial to the public interest. No dispatches will be noticed here unless this necessity is recognized, and in such cases they must be paid for by the party sending them, who may look for remuneration to the quartermaster's department on producing a copy of the dispatch to show that it was upon public business, and that the matter demanded this mode of transaction.

By order,
(Signed) L. THOMAS,
Adjutant General.
GEO. D. RUGGLES, Ass't Adj. Gen.

FROM WASHINGTON.—We had a call this morning from Fenton Stevens, who has been acting as assistant quartermaster of the fifth regiment, during the illness of the regular quartermaster. He left Washington on Friday, and says the Light Guard boys are all well and in fine spirits. Gen. King's brigade occupies an advanced position on the right wing of the army, about three miles from the Chain Bridge. They have built a fortification which they call Fort Advance. It is superior to Fort Corcoran, and before Arlington Heights are captured, considerable of a fight will take place in its vicinity. Mr. Stevens says there are immense preparations for the defence of Washington, and that there is not the slightest probability that the enemy can succeed in taking the city. The health of the troops is good. The second regiment is getting along well under their new officers.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL.—D. H. Johnson, Esq., of La Crosse, member of the last legislature, has been appointed assistant attorney general in place of J. O. Culver, Esq., the latter having accepted an appointment as paymaster in the army.

TREASURY NOTES.—Mr. Stevens, who has just returned from Washington, showed us some five and ten dollar treasury notes. They are about the same size and have the general appearance of bank notes. The government redeems them on demand at the office of the assistant treasurer in New York. Mr. S. informs us that they are more popular than gold among the soldiers, and that large amounts will be sent home by the volunteers.

GREAT SUCCESS OF THE NATIONAL LOAN.—The feature of the day has been the demand for the treasury notes, which summed up $1,037,500. This is fifty per cent larger than the average since the loan was called for, and is a hopeful sign for the future of the market. With what is subscribed elsewhere the supply of money to the government by this means must be largely in excess of its disbursements. With victory attending our armies, New York alone could supply the government with all the means it required.

So far very few of the demand notes have been presented for payment in this city, a fact which goes to show public confidence in them. It is evident that the country would stand a large issue of these notes if done judiciously.

There is a liberal demand for all descriptions, and prices are advanced to 90½a90⅝ for the coupon 6 per cents of 1881; 90a90½ for the registered, and 80a80½ for the 5 per cents of 1874.

THE PRESIDENT AND FREMONT.—A dispatch from the private secretary of General Fremont to a gentleman in Cincinnati, is conclusive that General Fremont has not been removed from his command.

But the telegraph brings us the the President's proclamation, repudiating that part of General Fremont's proclamation of Aug. 3d relating to the confiscation of property and the liberation of slaves. The President falls back on the act of Congress which is far behind Fremont's proclamation.

We fear the effect of this action. It will do much to revive secession Missouri.—The men who are secretly urging on the rebels in Missouri were terrified at Fremont's proclamation. The order of the President will relieve them of their fears, and they will again renew their covert proceeding. Even if Fremont has gone a little farther than the President desired, it would have been better to sustained him.—Backward steps never lead to good results.—Chicago Post, 15th inst., Douglas Democratic paper.

A MINT OF MONEY BY EXPRESS.—The Chicago Tribune of to-day says: "Sunday morning Mr. Phillips, route agent of the United States Express Company, came into this city, having in charge shipments of gold from California and Pike's Peak, to the amount of one million dollars, and a large amount of bullion and money packages for eastern consignees, among these latter, nine goodly bags of gold dust, weighing one hundred and fifty pounds apiece. This shipment comes from Council Bluffs, overland to Cedar Rapids, thence to Rock Island. This is a new route for such shipments, owing to interruptions on the Hannibal and St. Joseph route through Missouri.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.

Leavenworth papers of the 11th give the following account of the late engagement between Rains and Montgomery. On the 2d inst. 600 rebel forces under Rains approached Fort Scott. Messenger despatched to Montgomery, who had 500 men, says he pursued Rains 11 miles, killing several of his men, when coming upon the main body of the enemy the battle commenced, the rebels having five cannon, Montgomery one howitzer only. The fight lasted two hours, when Montgomery slowly retreated, keeping up a running fire until nightfall. The enemy's force is reported by prisoners at from 2,000 to 3,000.

Twenty negroes have been declared free under Gen. Fremont's proclamation, being property of leading rebels.

Col. Cook, with 1800 regulars, left Fort Laramie on the 2d inst. for Fort Leavenworth.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.

The schooner Mary Wood, from the West Indies, owned in North Carolina, arrived here to-day in charge of Prize Master Nicholson, the crew consisting principally of members of Gen. Butler's and the naval brigade. Her cargo is salt, sugar and molasses. She was captured at Cape Hatteras.

To-morrow will be celebrated in this city as the anniversary of the federal constitution by parade of home guards and an oration by Hon. Geo. M. Dallas, at Independence Square. There will be a general suspension of business.

FARTHER POINT, Sept. 16.

The steamship Anglo Saxon arrived off this port this evening. She left Liverpool at 11 o'clock A. M. on the 5th and Londonderry on the 6th inst. The Nova Scotia reached Londonderry on the evening of the 4th. Political news by the Anglo Saxon is unimportant. The London Times says the impression seemed to be very general at Liverpool that passengers to or from the United States are required to be cautioned at the present juncture against any ready expression of opinion on the civil war.—The policy of making a short time precaution against the contingencies of the cotton supplies and of the glutted state of a distant market for manufacturing goods continued to make progress in Lancashire.

The Times in an editorial on the present aspect of American affairs argues that enough has transpired to show that the subjugation of the south is next to impossible, and submission improbable.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.

Special to Post.—There are no important movements on the other side of the Potomac, but military authorities expect important feints to be made at different points along the line.

It is understood that several of our army officers are busily engaged in returning fugitive slaves to their masters.

There are rumors this morning that Gen. Fremont has resigned his command, and that his action has been taken in consequence of the restrictions placed upon his proclamation by the letter of the President. Mayor Berrett, of this city, proposes to resign the office of mayor.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.

The Baltimore American of this morning has a letter from the Point of Rocks, dated Sunday, giving additional particulars of the Doenstown engagement. Col. Geary commanded in person. Our loss is one killed, and five slightly wounded. Our troops behaved like veterans. Companies B, E and I of the 28th Pennsylvania regiment and two companies of the 13th New York comprised our force. During the fight a rebel was seen taking aim at Col. Geary, when the Colonel grasped a rifle from a soldier and shot the rebel on the spot. Our troops are in fine spirits.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.

It is stated that one of the schooners lately captured at Hatteras Inlet was from Boston, with a cargo of boots and shoes.

The light house on Body Island has been blown up, and that on Oregon Inlet abandoned by the rebels.

The bark Chas. Brewer, and schooners Mary E. Hopkins, F. H. Russell, and Julia A. Rich, were seized to-day.

Seven southerners were arrested aboard the City of Manchester, this morning, who have been profusely expressing secession sentiments on the voyage. Their baggage was inspected, but nothing treasonable being found, they were released.

Abbe McMaster, late editor of the American Journal, took up compulsory lodgings in the classic shades of Fort Lafayette today.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16.

Col. F. P. Blair, Jr., was ordered yesterday by the provost marshal to report himself under arrest on a general charge of using disrespectful language when alluding to his superior officer, with reference to the removal of Gen. Fremont.

The Democrat of this morning has the following:

"The removal of Gen. Fremont we do not think has been seriously considered by the administration. They have undoubtedly charges preferred which will be duly and properly investigated, but these proceedings, we are now satisfied, have never looked to a result such as his removal from this department. His extraordinary energy and efficiency are too highly appreciated by the government, and his measures are too deeply sealed in the affections of the people of the loyal states to admit the probability of any such event."

The Republican learns that Col. Marshal of Lexington, a few days since took possession of a quantity of property belonging to the state, including books, papers, and the great seal of the state which Jackson took from Jefferson City.

After a defeat of state forces at Booneville by Lyon, Jackson publicly announced his intention to establish the capitol at Lexington, claiming that he had full authority to do so.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16.

Col. Blair's arrest was made by Provost Marshal McKinstry, by order of Gen. Fremont. The charge is, writing letters to members of the cabinet, in defamation of his superior officer, being an infraction of the articles of war.

As between the administration and Fremont, and the Blairs and Fremont, the sympathy of the most loyal men here, especially that of the Germans, greatly preponderates in the general's favor.

The quarrel is regarded by everybody, save the secessionists, as a great misfortune, and the hope is general that mutual explanations will adjust it, and everything go on harmoniously.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.

The whole story about Fremont is not yet told. There is a question of courtesy between him and the president, and one of extravagance in the management of his department. It is said that the president, when advised of his forthcoming proclamation, wished him to withhold it until the cabinet could consult. It appeared the next morning. [We dont believe that yarn.—Tribune.] His activity has nevertheless been very great.

Military men in high authority still consider an attack imminent; but the prevalent opinion of the army is that the rebels will not venture it unless in the madness of desperation. No one doubts that an assault on our entrenchments will be suicide. The indications of a movement are less than two days since.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16.

Postmaster General Blair, and Quartermaster General Meigs, left for Washington this morning. It is understood that the precise charge on which Colonel Blair was arrested is insubordination in communicating, while an army officer, with authorities at Washington, making complaints against and using disreputable language towards General Fremont, with a view of effecting his removal. It is stated that letters written by Colonel Blair are now in possession of General Fremont.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 16.

The police are arresting secession members of the Legislature as fast as they reach Baltimore on their way to Frederick. There will therefore be no quorum present. It is presumed that all the secession members will be arrested. There are fifteen of the House and three of the Senate, to be arrested. Several of these are said to have fled from the State.

DARNSTOWN, Md., Sept. 14.

There are floating rumors of Gen. Johnston having been greatly strengthened along the river line. There has been increased activity in all departments of this division within the past week.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.

The Ellsworth Fire Zouaves are to be mustered out of service. Their insubordination has rendered them unfit for service.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 16.

Subscriptions for the national loan opened to-day in this city. A good start was made. Twenty-nine subscribers have taken $145,000.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 19.

Three hundred new muskets were found buried in the rear of the old theater, supposed to have been concealed by Kane's police after April 19th.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 14.

The Richmond Examiner of the 11th says that 156 Yankee prisoners were sent to Castle Pinckney, South Carolina—among them Col. Wilcox, of the Michigan First; Col. Corcoran, of the New York Sixty-ninth; Lieut. Col. Neff, of the Second Kentucky; Major John W. Potter, of the Thirty-Eighth New York; Rev. G. W. Dodge, chaplain of the Eleventh New York; Rev. H. Eddy, chaplain of the Second Connecticut; Surgeon Griswold, of the thirty-eighth New York; Grey, of the United States army; Connelly, of the Second New York; Harris, of the Second Rhode Island; Captains Donney, of the Eleventh New York; Connolly, of the Twenty-second New York; Fish, of the Thirty-second New York; Farnsb, of the Seventy-ninth New York; Drew, of the Second Vermont; Shurtliff, of the Seventh Ohio; L. Gordon, of the Eleventh Massachusetts; Whitington and Jenkins; Lieuts. Toy, of the Twenty-fifth New York; Hamblin (son of the actor of that name) of the Thirty-eighth New York; Underhill, of the Eleventh New York; Worcester, of the Eighty-first New York; Dempsey, of the Second New York; Wilcox, of the Seventh Ohio; Gordon, of the Second Dragoons, United States army; Calell, of the Eleventh Massachusetts; Connolly, of the Sixty-ninth New York. Captain Rickets, of the United States army was to have accompanied the party, but is not sufficiently recovered from his wounds to undertake the journey.

Serious fears are entertained for the crops of the south. The rains of August are reported as the heaviest and the most general ever known in the south, and have been very disastrous. The Savannah Republican claims a fair rice crop, but admits that the continuous rains have damaged it somewhat.

The Baton Rouge Advocate says the cotton crops in that vicinity are literally covered with the army worm, and that the fate of the crop will be sealed in a few days, for the rain and heavy atmosphere are favorable to the worm.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.

The confederates at Fairfax issue rations for one hundred and eighty thousand men daily.

Among their regiments are Longstreet's, Major Walton's, Brigadier General Walker's, Hartstein's and Wigfall's Texas, and Gen. Toomb's Georgia Brigade.

The administration is not satisfied with the explanation of the Spanish minister about the proclamation of the captain general of Cuba allowing vessels with the confederate flag to enter Cuban ports.

Such action is regarded as sufficient casus belli, and has occupied the attention of the president and secretary of state the entire day to-day.

There is good reason to believe that Spain will recognize the southern confederacy in a very short time.

ELKWATER, Va., Sept. 16.

The body of Col. John A. Washington was sent over to the enemy yesterday, under a flag of truce, which, on its way, was met by a similar flag coming from the enemy for the purpose of obtaining information as to his condition.

On the 12th a detachment of 300 men from the Fourteenth Indiana and the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Ohio regiments dispersed three Tennessee regiments under Gen. Anderson, on the west side of Cheat Mountain, completely routing them, killing eighty, and obtaining most of their equipments. Our loss was eight killed. The enemy made an advance on Elkwater the same day, with a force supposed to be 15,000, but were driven back by detachments of men from the Fifteenth Indiana, Third and Sixth Ohio regiments, and shells from Loomis' battery. They retired some eight or ten miles.

A strong force of Arkansas, Tennessee, and Virginia troops also threatened the east side of Cheat Mountain, but have not yet had a general engagement.

A shell thrown from one of Loomis' guns two miles into the enemy's camp killed ten and wounded four.

The Thirteenth Indiana Regiment had a severe skirmish with superior numbers of the enemy on the 12th, and killed ten or twelve, with trifling loss.

As the enemy advanced on Elkwater, the column was handsomely checked by a detachment of the Seventeenth Indiana.

Lieut. Merell, of the topographical engineers, was taken prisoner by the rebels, while on his way to Cheat Mountain.

CAIRO, Sept. 16.

A deserter from the rebel camp at Columbus, Ky., reports that on Friday last the rebels, 10,000 strong, under Gen. Johnston had marching orders—their destination being Paducah. He also reports that Jeff. Thompson's forces are at Belmont, Missouri.

The crew of the steamer John Gault, seized by the government, were released to-day.

Eight hundred infantry and four pieces of Capt. Taylor's light artillery, under command of Col. Ogleby, made a reconnoisance below Norfolk, Mo., on Saturday. They saw 300 mounted rebels, who ran on seeing the federal troops.

All is quiet at Paducah.

MAYSVILLE, Sept. 14.

Hon. Joseph Holt, John J. Crittenden, Andy Johnson and Horace Maynard are advertised to speak at a Union barbacue near this place, on Saturday, the 21st inst.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 15.

Gen. Zollicoffer telegraphed to Gov. Magoffin that he had occupied the three long mountains in Knox county, Ky., and would not leave unless the federal troops did.

Special dispatch to the New York World.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.

It is more than ever evident that the rebels do not contemplate an advance. Time will soon demonstrate the correctness of this statement.

Col. Miles is busily engaged in procuring evidence for a court martial to investigate his conduct at Bull Run. The court meets on the 15th inst.

Gen. McClellan recognizes the fact that the especially vulnerable point of the enemy is on the Atlantic coast, and will accordingly wait the auspicious moment when a tremendous force is to flank the enemy from the sea, and hurl its columns like a regiments of thunderbolts over the "sacred soil," while Rosencranz acts in concert upon another wing of the enemy. Then, in the general scattering which must result, McClellan will appreciate and improve the opportunity, and the rebels will see him at the head of his army outside the intrenchments.

We have facilities for obtaining information from the rebels, and material that will be called into action against them at the proper time, of which they are obviously in the profoundest ignorance, and must remain so for a while longer.

It is evident that the rebels can at any moment close the navigation of the Potomac. Some of our high government officials are in the habit of visiting Fortress Monroe occasionally, and it is possible that a cabinet minister or general may be captured on the river some fine day.

Those who express concern about defraying the expenses of the war forget that all is not expenditure. The treasury department is now in daily receipt of about half a million of dollars from the proceeds of small notes alone. When demand notes are received they will be re-issued instead of being cancelled.

Several companies of Berdan's sharpshooters have arrived. They will be distributed in detachments among the brigades, for the special purpose of picking off the leading rebel officers, in case of an engagement.

General McClellan makes it a rule to inspect the entire line from Alexandria to the Chain Bridge, at least three times a week, and this, with the reviews of the different brigades, keeps him in the saddle a good deal of the time.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

FREDERICK, Md., Sept. 16.

The legislature meets to-morrow. There will not be a quorum. No secession ordinance is prepared, nor will one be passed. The Maryland secessionists have nothing to hope for from the legislature.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.

Lieut. Col. Atwood of the 6th Wisconsin volunteers was honorably discharged from service to-day, in consequence of physical inability to endure the fatigues of camp life. His retirement is universally regretted by the regiment, for he was an able officer in the volunteer service.

The following Colonels have been appointed to take command of the Kentucky infantry and cavalry regiments: Thomas Brownlow, 1st infantry; S. S. Fry, 2d infantry; S. T. Dowan, 3d infantry; Frank Weilford, 1st cavalry.

While the government of the United is doing the best they can, under the rules of war, to take care of and protect the health of the rebel prisoners now in their possession, Jeff. Davis, or Beauregard, or Johnson, or all of them, have sent our prisoners to Castle Pinckney, the nearest fort to the city of Charleston, South Carolina, where fever prevails extensively at this season of the year. If our officers whom they have taken prisoners and confined in Castle Pinckney survive the present season it will be contrary to the well known theory of southerners, for they have always asserted as a reason why slave labor must be employed, that northerners could not survive the malaria and fever that prevail in that section. The rebels may suppose that the confinement of the officers of the Union army in Charleston may prove a protection to that place. We shall see.

Tribune's special.—Last evening the rebels approached our left wing in force, destroyed several grain racks and other property, and captured a number of cattle belonging to Union farmers.

In the evening, on a false alarm, General Slocum's brigade was under arms in four minutes. It turned out that several contrabands had arrived on their masters horses, and that some of our men had found in the bushes an intelligent free negro from Fairfax, who says the greater part of the rebels are arriving between Fairfax and Alexandria, where they have thrown up breastworks. He heard Lawyer Hunter, owner of Hunter Mills, say the rebels would take Arlington Heights and Alexandria this week with 200,000 men, and from there shell Washington.

After the fight at Lewinsville Beauregard was sent for to bring reinforcements from Manassas, as they feared we would over power them. He came with a considerable body of troops.

Owing to information received by the post office department that the Hannibal and St. Joseph railroad is entirely unprotected from the rebels, and that they have St. Joseph in their hands, it has ordered the California mail to be carried via Davenport and Council Bluffs. The department has also received information that all the officers and employees of the overland mail company are rebels.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 17.

The names of the killed and wounded at Darnestown have not yet been received.—The first account of the affair was received by the American from an anonymous correspondence, and was printed at too late an hour to obtain any verifications.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 17.

The republicans here have concluded to abandon their party organization and take up any good sound Union men in the coming local election. Gen. Theodore Runyon, who was a Douglas elector, is a prominent candidate for mayor. The peace party have made their nominations, coupled with resolutions sustaining the government, the full force of which may be appreciated when it is known that their candidate for mayor expressed the opinion that this war, on the part of the south, is as just and holy as was ours of the Revolution.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 17.

The Old Point boat has arrived, but brings no news of interest. The news of the repulse of the rebels in Western Virginia caused great rejoicing here among Union men.

FREDERICK, Md., Sept. 17.

Not more than twenty-five members of the two houses of the Maryland legislature are yet here. Both houses will meet and adjourn till to-morrow. The impression is that neither house, for want of a quorum, will be able to transact any business.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 17.

The anniversary of the adoption of the constitution is being duly celebrated here. Salutes were fired at sunrise and at noon. The Home Guard also turned out and paraded the streets 3,000 strong, escorting the orator of the day, Hon. Geo. M. Dallas, to Independence Square.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 17.

In the house a message from Gov. Magoffin was received, communicating a telegraphic dispatch from Gen. Zollicoffer, announcing that the government of Tennessee demanded the occupation of Cumberland Gap, and the three long mountains in Kentucky, and that he had done so, and should retain his position until the federal forces were withdrawn and federal camps broken up.

Also a message from Thomas C. Reynolds, Lieutenant Governor of Missouri, asking what course he intended to take in view of the occupation of the Mississippi river below the mouth of the Ohio by the federal forces, in violation of her neutrality.

No southern newspapers received to-night.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.

Correspondence of the Janesville Gazette.

Quavers from the Capital.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13, 1861.

I send you a short letter to-day by assistant quartermaster Stevens, who returns to "tender his resignation"—the commission he received from Gov. Randall not being recognized by the war department. If I may judge from the amount of labor which Mr. Stevens has performed since he left Wisconsin with the fifth regiment—"in season and out of season"—up to the last hour of the last day of his service, there certainly would seem in this particular case, a partly plausible necessity for the office of "assistant quartermaster!" so that Gov. Randall's action in the case may have been as reasonable as are the war department's general "regulations." And if I may further judge from what I have heard from many of the officers of the regiment, of the acceptable and efficient manner in which Mr. Stevens has performed his duties, the disappointment which this informality has occasioned is full as severely felt by the regiment as by himself. One thing I will venture on my own responsibility—that his return to Wisconsin is not in any sense a "backing down" from a determination to make himself useful to the government in the present crisis, but rather to take a new start, in such a way as that his position, whatever it may be, shall be understood and accredited.

The news from western Virginia, Missouri and Kentucky, by late dispatches, is brightening the face of things here remarkably. Fremont telegraphs "the first gun in Kentucky in position!" Let the rebels strengthen their ramparts speedily. Let Pillow "dig his ditches" on the right side! for when Kentucky opens her batteries, there will be no party. "Neutrality" will give place to aggressive, radical, continued action, till not a rebel foot-print is left to disgrace her soil.

There are ominous signs here; unquestionably things are ripening fast, and the harvest may have commenced before you receive this.

Excuse haste, as the train leaves in a few minutes.

Yours truly, A. G. —.

The Memphis Appeal thus notifies Kentuckians of the purpose of the secessionists regarding the state:

"THE SOUTH NEEDS HER TERRITORY, AND MUST HAVE IT, THOUGH AT THE PRICE OF BLOOD AND CONQUEST."

MR. DICKINSON DECLINES.—The Syracuse Journal of Thursday says:

"We understand that the president of the People's Convention, yesterday received a telegraphic dispatch from Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson, declining any nomination by the convention, and saying that he thought he could be of more benefit to the patriotic cause in another way. In case Mr. Dickinson persists in his declination, the name of Lyman Tremain will probably be substituted as the candidate for attorney general."

MARRIED.

WAR MEETINGS.

A meeting in aid of the movement to form the new regiment will be held:

At Albany, Green county, at which an Ox will be roasted, on SATURDAY, the 21st inst., at 2 o'clock P. M. L. P. Harvey and others will speak.

An the Stone School House, in North Johnstown, on FRIDAY, the 20th day of September inst.

At Edgerton, on TUESDAY, September 17th, at 7 o'clock P. M.

Good speakers will be present at the above meetings.

Military Items.

J. J. R. Pease, Esq., chairman of the central military committee, this morning returned from Madison with very important information concerning the regiment now forming from the counties of Rock and Green.

Full authority has been conferred upon H. W. Collnis, Esq., secretary of the committee, to act as agent for the quartermaster general, to establish and fit up the camp for the regiment.

Tents have already been ordered here, a part of which will arrive to-day, and the residue during the week. Blankets will be furnished, and the uniforms will follow as fast as the quartermaster's department can furnish them.

We have news also from Albany, Green county, that the people there are in earnest—working with a will for a company.—They promise one of eighty men in ten days. Indications now are all favorable for a full regiment at an early day. Let the enlistments go on.

CAUCUS IN THE FIRST WARD.—The caucus was called to order by S. J. Belton. W. B. Strong was elected president, and A. A. Jackson, secretary.

On motion of S. J. Belton the caucus proceeded to the election of delegates, viva voce. W. B. Strong, Nat. Parker, John R. Bennett, S. J. Belton, A. A. Jackson and Volney Atwood were elected delegates to the city convention.

The meeting then adjourned.

A. A. JACKSON, Sec'y.

THIRD WARD CAUCUS.—The third ward caucus met pursuant to notice. E. A. Howland was called to the chair, and S. L. James, secretary.

The following were elected delegates to attend the city convention:—S. J. M. Putnam, A. K. Allen, John C. Hemmens and E. A. Howland.

E. A. HOWLAND, Ch'n.

S. L. JAMES, Sec'y.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—The members of the Janesville City Zouaves elected officers for the company last evening, as follows:

Ed. E. Woodman, captain.
James L. Murray, 1st lieutenant.
Geo. C. Brown, 2d lieut.
J. W. Hall, 1st sergeant.
Wm. Burns, 2d serg't.
H. T. Wright, 3d serg't.
Van. E. Huginan, 4th serg't.
L. S. Miller, 5th serg't.
Davis Cheney, 1st corporal.

THE COUNTY FAIR.—The weather is very fine for the county fair, and the entries so far have been in goodly numbers. The programme for to-morrow is as follows:—The books will be closed at noon and handed over to the committees. The walking match will take place at 10 A. M.; the ladies' riding match at one P. M., and the boys' riding match at two P. M.

NO CAUCUS IN THE SECOND WARD.—In consequence of no notice having been handed in for publication of the caucus to be held in the Second ward for the election of delegates to the city convention for electing delegates to the state convention, there was no meeting. The committee have appointed Saturday, the 21st, for the day of the meeting.

TENTS.—Thirty tents for the Rock county regiment will be received here this afternoon or to-morrow.

FOURTH WARD CAUCUS.—The republicans of the fourth ward met at the office of J. W. Storey, this afternoon, pursuant to call of the ward committee, and were called to order by S. Foord, Jr., for the committee, when J. B. Cassoday was named chairman, and S. Foord, Jr., secretary.

On motion, the following gentlemen were elected delegates from this ward to the fifth assembly district convention: H. E. Pattison, S. Holdredge, Jr., J. B. Cassoday, S. Foord, Jr., H. N. Comstock, S. C. Spaulding, G. S. Strasberger and W. A. Eager.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

J. B. CASSODAY, Ch'n.

S. FOORD, JR., Sec'y.

PANORAMA OF THE WAR.—We take pleasure in noticing the return of the grand panorama of the war, which will exhibit in this city during the fair. Our citizens will gladly welcome this fine exhibition to their city, and our country friends can spend their spare time this evening in a manner both instructive and entertaining. This panorama, wherever exhibited has met with success, and we advise all those who have not witnessed it not to let this opportunity pass unimproved.

THE SEVENTH REGIMENT.—We learn that the seventh regiment will not pass through this city to-morrow, as was anticipated.—They will not leave Madison before Thursday, and perhaps not then.

BE CAREFUL.—An ugly hole has made its appearance in the west end of the lower bridge. Its repair should be attended to immediately.

SEVENTH REGIMENT.—The Madison Patriot says: "The 7th Regiment is now full, and the companies are lettered. We hear it said that the regiment leaves Camp Randall for Washington next Wednesday. We give below the field officers and the position of the companies. In doing so we must congratulate the officers on the soldierly bearing of the men, and their excellent behavior while in the city. They conduct themselves as model men and soldiers, and while being a credit to the grand army of the Union, they must be a terror to the foe:"

HOW TO OBTAIN THE GENUINE FLAVOR OF COFFEE.—Knighten's Foreign Life in Ceylon furnishes the following hints derived from long experience, for preparing coffee. The aroma which resides in the essential oil of coffee berry is gradually dissipated after roasting, and of course, still more so after being ground. In order to enjoy the full flavor in perfection, the berry should pass at once from the roasting-pan to the mill, and thence to the coffee-pot; and again, after having been made, should be mixed, when almost at boiling heat, with the hot milk. It must be very bad coffee, indeed, which, these precautions being followed, will not afford an agreeable and exhilarating drink.

THE SEIZURE OF CONTRABAND PROPERTY.—Under the provisions of the force bill and the confiscation act, the United States authorities in this city have sequestrated between eight and ten millions of property owned in whole or in part by citizens of the rebellious states. This property embraces ships, cargoes, money in bank, bank stocks, railroad bonds and stock, state bonds and merchandise. By order of the secretary of war, the United States marshal and his deputies, from the day of the president's proclamation to the last of the fifteen days grace, were engaged unremittingly in tracing out the ownership of property embraced by the proclamation; and on the last day lodged the information required by law with the district attorney, who forthwith filed the necessary libels, and under the motion of the court, the marshal proceeded to make the seizures. His proceedings were very quietly and cautiously conducted to a successful issue, and the result of his efforts is even greater than the government anticipated.—New York Tribune.

A FORMIDABLE WAR STEAMER.—The Shreveport Daily News says:

"In yesterday's paper we alluded to the launching of the boat built opposite New Orleans for the purpose of attacking the enemy's men-of-war. The boat is the length of an ordinary steamboat, the roof being arched in shape, covered with railroad iron, so as prevent balls from penetrating, and the balls in striking will immediately glance off without any effect, let the position of the gun fired be what it may. At the bow of the boat is a ponderous cutter, made of the best steel, the object of which is to cut a vessel in two. This will require a very great power, which the projectors think they have obtained in the way of two powerful engines. The mode of attack is with hot water, which is thrown through hose attached to the boilers. The vessel attacked cannot keep her men on deck, nor can she use her cannon, as they will be kept wet by the water thrown. Besides being covered with the heavy iron, the boat is built of the heaviest and best timber. The boat has been taken down the river with a view of letting the fort fire on her."

EXTRAORDINARY CONVERSION.—Joshua Ridgeley, the disloyal hotel keeper, who resides about seven miles east from La Crosse, has become converted to the federal faith. He came to the city to-day and passed the forenoon as usual. He publicly expressed the desire that the La Crosse Artillery volunteers might be destroyed in battle, and not be permitted to return alive. He was promptly escorted to the armory, where he took the oath of allegiance. His next appearance was at the head of the artillery company as it passed up Main street.—Joshua carried the United States flag amid the plaudits of large crowds of citizens, who signified their joy over his sudden conversion to the loyal cause by hearty cheers. It is said some other persons will soon be invited to imitate the example of Joshua.—La Crosse Republican.

A DEATH IN THE CAMP.—A soldier named Alfred H. Casson, of Fall River, belonging to the Columbia Co. Cadets, died at Camp Randall yesterday, after a brief illness, of typhoid fever. He resides in Milton, Rock county. His mother, having a presentiment that her son was sick, arrived in Camp on Friday, and was present relieving with her tender care the last hours of her patriotic son. He was only 19 years of age.—This is the first death that has taken place in the camp, and casts a deep gloom over the soldiers now there. The funeral of young Casson took place at the camp this afternoon at 4 o'clock, attended with military honors.—Madison Journal.

MAT CARPENTER "READ OUT."—The Milwaukee News reads Hon. M. H. Carpenter out of the democratic party for having expressed himself in favor of prosecuting the war even to the extent of the abolition of slavery. It says, "we propose to have very little to do with such democrats.—Their people are not our people, and their nigger is not our god."—Chicago Tribune.

THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER ON FREMONT'S PROCLAMATION.—The Cleveland Plaindealer, the leading democratic paper in Western Ohio, speaking of Fremont's style of carrying the war into Africa, says:

"We believe this measure of Fremont's calculated to have the happiest effect, and subscribing literally to every war measure which shall have for its aim the speedy termination of this most unhallowed strife, we look forward now to the breaking of light through the mists which have hitherto surrounded the future."

Janesville Fire Zouaves.

This company has been sworn into the service of the United States, has received its tents and camp equipage. The members have received their uniforms entire: some twenty-five more men are needed to fill the company to the required number. For the purpose of getting these men a Recruiting Officer, for this company, will be found at the Clothing Store of B. Bornheim until the required number is obtained.

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the world for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest size Dashes. There is scarcely any part of Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table and arm of each machine is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The Fuse machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are of the best ... adapted to the Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes as are the large machines for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Gauges, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold at ... of inferior quality at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. ...

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefiting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

An the Stone School House, in North Johnstown, on FRIDAY, the 20th day of September inst.

At Edgerton, on TUESDAY, September 17th, at 7 o'clock P. M.

Good speakers will be present at the above meetings.

Military Items.

J. J. R. Pease, Esq., chairman of the central military committee, this morning returned from Madison with very important information concerning the regiment now forming from the counties of Rock and Green.

Full authority has been conferred upon H. W. Collnis, Esq., secretary of the committee, to act as agent for the quartermaster general, to establish and fit up the camp for the regiment.

Tents have already been ordered here, a part of which will arrive to-day, and the residue during the week. Blankets will be furnished, and the uniforms will follow as fast as the quartermaster's department can furnish them.

We have news also from Albany, Green county, that the people there are in earnest—working with a will for a company.—They promise one of eighty men in ten days. Indications now are all favorable for a full regiment at an early day. Let the enlistments go on.

CAUCUS IN THE FIRST WARD.—The caucus was called to order by S. J. Belton. W. B. Strong was elected president, and A. A. Jackson, secretary.

On motion of S. J. Belton the caucus proceeded to the election of delegates, viva voce. W. B. Strong, Nat. Parker, John R. Bennett, S. J. Belton, A. A. Jackson and Volney Atwood were elected delegates to the city convention.

The meeting then adjourned.

A. A. JACKSON, Sec'y.

THIRD WARD CAUCUS.—The third ward caucus met pursuant to notice. E. A. Howland was called to the chair, and S. L. James, secretary.

The following were elected delegates to attend the city convention:—S. J. M. Putnam, A. K. Allen, John C. Hemmens and E. A. Howland.

E. A. HOWLAND, Ch'n.
S. L. JAMES, Sec'y.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—The members of the Janesville City Zouaves elected officers for the company last evening, as follows:

Ed. E. Woodman, captain.
James L. Murray, 1st lieutenant.
Geo. C. Brown, 2d lieut.
J. W. Hall, 1st sergeant.
Wm. Burns, 2d serg't.
H. T. Wright, 3d serg't.
Van. E. Huginan, 4th serg't.
L. S. Miller, 5th serg't.
Davis Cheney, 1st corporal.

THE COUNTY FAIR.—The weather is very fine for the county fair, and the entries so far have been in goodly numbers. The programme for to-morrow is as follows:—The books will be closed at noon and handed over to the committees. The walking match will take place at 10 A. M.; the ladies' riding match at one P. M., and the boys' riding match at two P. M.

NO CAUCUS IN THE SECOND WARD.—In consequence of no notice having been handed in for publication of the caucus to be held in the Second ward for the election of delegates to the city convention for electing delegates to the state convention, there was no meeting. The committee have appointed Saturday, the 21st, for the day of the meeting.

TENTS.—Thirty tents for the Rock county regiment will be received here this afternoon or to-morrow.

FOURTH WARD CAUCUS.—The republicans of the fourth ward met at the office of J. W. Storey, this afternoon, pursuant to call of the ward committee, and were called to order by S. Foord, Jr., for the committee, when J. B. Cassoday was named chairman, and S. Foord, Jr., secretary.

On motion, the following gentlemen were elected delegates from this ward to the fifth assembly district convention: H. E. Pattison, S. Holdredge, Jr., J. B. Cassoday, S. Foord, Jr., H. N. Comstock, S. C. Spaulding, G. S. Strasberger and W. A. Eager.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

J. B. CASSODAY, Ch'n.
S. FOORD, JR., Sec'y.

PANORAMA OF THE WAR.—We take pleasure in noticing the return of the grand panorama of the war, which will exhibit in this city during the fair. Our citizens will gladly welcome this fine exhibition to their city, and our country friends can spend their spare time this evening in a manner both instructive and entertaining. This panorama, wherever exhibited has met with success, and we advise all those who have not witnessed it not to let this opportunity pass unimproved.

THE SEVENTH REGIMENT.—We learn that the seventh regiment will not pass through this city to-morrow, as was anticipated.—They will not leave Madison before Thursday, and perhaps not then.

BE CAREFUL.—An ugly hole has made its appearance in the west end of the lower bridge. Its repair should be attended to immediately.

SEVENTH REGIMENT.—The Madison Patriot says: "The 7th Regiment is now full, and the companies are lettered. We hear it said that the regiment leaves Camp Randall for Washington next Wednesday. We give below the field officers and the position of the companies. In doing so we must congratulate the officers on the soldierly bearing of the men, and their excellent behavior while in the city. They conduct themselves as model men and soldiers, and while being a credit to the grand army of the Union, they must be a terror to the foe:"

HOW TO OBTAIN THE GENUINE FLAVOR OF COFFEE.—Knighten's Foreign Life in Ceylon furnishes the following hints derived from long experience, for preparing coffee. The aroma which resides in the essential oil of coffee-berry is gradually dissipated after roasting, and of course, still more so after being ground. In order to enjoy the full flavor in perfection, the berry should pass at once from the roasting-pan to the mill, and thence to the coffee-pot; and again, after having been made, should be mixed, when almost at boiling heat, with the hot milk. It must be very bad coffee, indeed, which, these precautions being followed, will not afford an agreeable and exhilarating drink.

THE SEIZURE OF CONTRABAND PROPERTY.—Under the provisions of the force bill and the confiscation act, the United States authorities in this city have sequestrated between eight and ten millions of property owned in whole or in part by citizens of the rebellious states. This property embraces ships, cargoes, money in bank, bank stocks, railroad bonds and stock, state bonds and merchandise. By order of the secretary of war, the United States marshal and his deputies, from the day of the president's proclamation to the last of the fifteen days grace, were engaged unremittingly in tracing out the ownership of property embraced by the proclamation; and on the last day lodged the information required by law with the district attorney, who forthwith filed the necessary libels, and under the motion of the court, the marshal proceeded to make the seizures. His proceedings were very quietly and cautiously conducted to a successful issue, and the result of his efforts is even greater than the government anticipated.—New York Tribune.

A FORMIDABLE WAR STEAMER.—The Shreveport Daily News says:

"In yesterday's paper we alluded to the launching of the boat built opposite New Orleans for the purpose of attacking the enemy's men-of-war. The boat is the length of an ordinary steamboat, the roof being arched in shape, covered with railroad iron, so as prevent balls from penetrating, and the balls in striking will immediately glance off without any effect, let the position of the gun fired be what it may. At the bow of the boat is a ponderous cutter, made of the best steel, the object of which is to cut a vessel in two. This will require a very great power, which the projectors think they have obtained in the way of two powerful engines. The mode of attack is with hot water, which is thrown through hose attached to the boilers. The vessel attacked cannot keep her men on deck, nor can she use her cannon, as they will be kept wet by the water thrown. Besides being covered with the heavy iron, the boat is built of the heaviest and best timber. The boat has been taken down the river with a view of letting the fort fire on her."

EXTRAORDINARY CONVERSION.—Joshua Ridgeley, the disloyal hotel keeper, who resides about seven miles east from La Crosse, has become converted to the federal faith. He came to the city to-day and passed the forenoon as usual. He publicly expressed the desire that the La Crosse Artillery volunteers might be destroyed in battle, and not be permitted to return alive. He was promptly escorted to the armory, where he took the oath of allegiance. His next appearance was at the head of the artillery company as it passed up Main street.—Joshua carried the United States flag amid the plaudits of large crowds of citizens, who signified their joy over his sudden conversion to the loyal cause by hearty cheers. It is said some other persons will soon be invited to imitate the example of Joshua.—La Crosse Republican.

A DEATH IN THE CAMP.—A soldier named Alfred H. Casson, of Fall River, belonging to the Columbia Co. Cadets, died at Camp Randall yesterday, after a brief illness, of typhoid fever. He resides in Milton, Rock county. His mother, having a presentiment that her son was sick, arrived in Camp on Friday, and was present relieving with her tender care the last hours of her patriotic son. He was only 19 years of age.—This is the first death that has taken place in the camp, and casts a deep gloom over the soldiers now there. The funeral of young Casson took place at the camp this afternoon at 4 o'clock, attended with military honors.—Madison Journal.

MAT CARPENTER "READ OUT."—The Milwaukee News reads Hon. M. H. Carpenter out of the democratic party for having expressed himself in favor of prosecuting the war even to the extent of the abolition of slavery. It says, "we propose to have very little to do with such democrats.—Their people are not our people, and their nigger is not our god."—Chicago Tribune.

THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER ON FREMONT'S PROCLAMATION.—The Cleveland Plaindealer, the leading democratic paper in Western Ohia, speaking of Fremont's style of carrying the war into Africa, says:

"We believe this measure of Fremont's calculated to have the happiest effect, and subscribing literally to every war measure which shall have for its aim the speedy termination of this most unhallowed strife, we look forward now to the breaking of light through the mists which have hitherto surrounded the future."

GREAT REDUCTION —IN— The Prices —OF— SINGER & CO.'S STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefiting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

CHAPTER 212.

AS AMENDED BY CHAPTER 1, EXTRA SESSION.

AN ACT to amend the General Banking Law, and the several acts amendatory thereof.

The People of the State of Wisconsin represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes with the amendments belonging thereto, (see chapter 165 of the general laws of 1858,) is hereby amended as follows: by striking out the following words: "Said stocks to be valued at a rate to be estimated and governed by the average rate at which said stocks have been sold in the city of New York within the next six months preceding the time when such stocks may be left on deposit with the comptroller." By striking out the words "equal to," and inserting after the words "not exceeding," the words "its value." By striking out the following words: "But such public stocks shall in all cases be, or be made to be equal to a stock producing six per cent per annum; and it shall not be lawful for the bank comptroller to take such stock at a rate above its par value, nor above its current market value in the city of New York at the time of deposit, by such person or association of persons;" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stock which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months and up to the time of deposit in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks; but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposit, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposit, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks;" so that the said section shall hereafter read as follows: "Whenever, hereafter, any person or association of persons, formed for the purpose of banking under the provisions of this chapter, shall duly assign and transfer in trust to the treasurer of this state, any portion of the public stocks issued or to be issued by the United States or any state stocks, on which full interest is annually paid, such person or association of persons shall be entitled to receive from the bank comptroller an amount of such circulating notes of different denominations, registered and countersigned, and not exceeding in value the amount of public stocks assigned and transferred as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stocks which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposit in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks, but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposit, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposit, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks: Provided, that if in the opinion of the bank comptroller, together with the governor and the secretary of state any stock offered shall be deemed insecure, they shall not be received as such securities under the provisions of this act; and provided, further, that from and after the first day of December, 1861, the bank comptroller shall not receive as security for circulating bank notes, any other public stocks than those issued by the state of Wisconsin and the United States."

SEC. 2. Any public stocks described in the preceding section, and issued at a rate of interest less than five per cent per annum, to be receivable by the bank comptroller, shall be made to be equal to stocks producing five per cent per annum.

SEC. 3. Section 40 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, is hereby amended by inserting between the words "located" and "to," in the 19th line of said section, the words "or to the judge at chambers."

SEC. 4. Every bank and banking association now organized in this state, and all banks and banking associations that shall be organized before the 1st day of December, 1861, except such banks and banking associations as are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall, on or before said first day of December next, appoint an agent, who shall keep an office in the city of Milwaukee or in the city of Madison, for the redemption of all circulating notes issued by such bank or banking association, which shall be presented to such agent for payment or redemption.

SEC. 5. The appointment of such agent shall be made in writing, and such written appointment shall be delivered to the bank comptroller on or before said first day of December next, who shall file the same in his office. If any bank or banking association shall neglect or refuse to appoint such agent within the time above mentioned, the bank comptroller shall appoint such agent for such bank or banking association.

SEC. 6. The bank comptroller shall, immediately after said first day of December next, during such time as he may deem advisable, publish a list of such agents in one daily newspaper published in the city of Madison, and in one daily newspaper published in the city of Milwaukee, the expense whereof shall be equally divided among the several banks or banking associations so published, and be paid by them to the comptroller on demand, under penalty of forfeiture of one hundred dollars, to be collected and applied as provided in respect to the forfeiture named in section 19, chapter 71, of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 7. Every bank or banking association hereafter organized, shall before receiving any circulating notes from the bank comptroller, appoint an agent for the purposes of this act; and such appointment shall be immediately published in the manner aforesaid, at the expense of such bank or banking association, to be collected in the manner above provided.

SEC. 8. Appointments of agents made in pursuance of this act, may be revoked and new appointments of agents made from time to time, by delivering such revocation and appointment to the bank comptroller, who shall cause the same to be published as before provided.

SEC. 9. It shall be lawful for any number of banks or banking associations, authorized by this act, to appoint an agent to associate together for raising a joint fund, to be placed in the hands of their common agent for the redemption of their circulating notes, in the city of Milwaukee or Madison, and also the circulating notes of other banks in such manner, and under such regulations as may be agreed upon, and to employ such agents and clerks as they may deem necessary to carry on the business of such common agency; but nothing in this section contained shall authorize the redemption or purchase by such agency of any circulating notes at a rate of discount greater than is herein provided for, nor to relieve such banks from any duty or liability required or imposed by this act.

SEC. 10. Every such bank or banking association in this state, except such banks and banking associations as now are or may be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall redeem and pay on demand, in the lawful money of the United States, all circulating notes issued by such banks or banking associations, presented for redemption at the office of the agent of such bank or banking association, during the usual hours of business of bankers, between the hours of ten and three o'clock, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent.

SEC. 11. Every bank or banking association, whose agent shall neglect or refuse to redeem its notes on demand, as aforesaid, shall, on proof being made to the bank comptroller of such neglect or refusal, by the affidavit of the person who presented said notes for redemption or payment, and on depositing in his office the notes so presented, be subject to the same penalties, and be proceeded against in the same manner, as is now provided by law for cases where the circulating notes of any bank or banking association are protested for non-payment, unless the comptroller shall be satisfied that there is a good and legal defence against the payment of such notes.

SEC. 12. Every bank and banking association shall redeem its circulating notes as now provided by law, but in case of neglect or refusal to redeem its notes on presentation at its counter, and of protest therefor, such bank or banking association, if not located within the city of Milwaukee or the city of Madison, shall not be liable to the holder of such notes for damages: Provided, it shall within fifteen days after receiving notice from the comptroller to pay the same, redeem said notes in the lawful money of the United States, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum; Provided, that the officer or officers of such bank or banking association so neglecting or refusing to redeem its notes on demand, may endorse upon the bills or package of bills so presented, an acknowledgement of such presentation and refusal, and waiving protest upon the same; and such endorsement shall be held as evidence of the statement therein made.

SEC. 13. No bank or banking association shall hereafter receive upon the deposite of bonds, circulating notes to an amount exceeding three times its bona fide cash capital actually paid in, and the bank comptroller is hereby authorized and required to ascertain what the actual cash capital of any bank or banking association applying for circulation, except in exchange for mutilated bills, may be, and for this purpose he is authorized to examine any person on oath, and to compel answers under oath, from any officer or stockholder of any bank or banking association so applying, or any other person.

SEC. 14. No bank or banking association shall hereafter be organized in this state, nor shall any more circulating notes be issued to any bank or banking association in this state, unless said bank or banking association shall have a bona fide cash capital of at least fifteen thousand dollars actually paid in, which shall remain in such bank or banking association as capital, and employed in legitimate banking at the place where the bank is located; and it is hereby declared that the bonds deposited with the bank comptroller shall not be considered as any evidence of the existence of capital in any such bank or banking association, nor of the amount and extent of such capital; and it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller, before issuing any more circulating notes to any such bank or banking association now organized, or that shall be hereafter organized, except in exchange for mutilated notes, to satisfy himself *by an examination under oath of an officer or stock*holder of such bank or banking association that it has fully complied with the provisions of this section, and of the next preceding section of this act, and for the purposes of such examination the comptroller, or in his absence the deputy comptroller, is hereby authorized to administer oaths; Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to permit any bank to issue circulating notes to any greater amount than its nominal capital.

SEC. 15. From and after the first day of December next it shall not be lawful for any bank or banking association, banker, broker, company or corporation, to circulate or attempt to circulate, or to pay out as money, any bill, note or other evidence of debt, issued or purporting to have been issued by any bank, banking association, company, corporation or individual located or residing out of this state, unless said bill, or note or evidence of debt shall, for the last six months preceding such circulating or paying out, have been redeemable in the city of New York or Boston in current money of the United States, at a rate of discount not exceeding three fourths of one per cent; and the decision of the bank comptroller as to the rate of such discount shall be final and conclusive. Every bank or banking association, banker or broker, corporation or company, offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit for each and every offense the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with costs of suit in the name and for the use of any person who shall sue for the same and prosecute such suit to judgment in any court having cognizance thereof.

SEC. 16. Each and every person owning or holding stock in any bank or banking association, who shall sell, transfer or assign his stock or any portion thereof, in any such bank or banking association, shall be held, and remain for the term of six months from and after such sale, transfer or assignment, as aforesaid, personally liable to the amount of stock so as aforesaid sold, transferred or assigned by him for the payment of all the debts and liabilities of such bank or banking association, existing at the time of such sale, transfer or assignment.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

SEC. 18. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with, or in any way contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 19. At the general election to be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, in the year 1861, at all the usual places of holding elections in this state, for the election of all officers required by law then to be elected, the question whether this act shall become a law and go into effect, or in any manner be in force, shall be submitted to the people, and if the same shall be approved by a majority of all the votes cast on the subject, it shall go into effect; otherwise, it shall not go into effect nor be in force.

SEC. 20. The votes cast on the subject specified in the last preceding section shall be by separate ballot, and shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, on each of them, the words: "For Amendments to the Banking Law;" or "Against Amendments to the Banking Law," which words shall indicate the vote for or against the approval of this act; and the ballots so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as the votes cast for state officers are required by law to be canvassed, and the secretary of state shall immediately, on the completion of said canvass, publish a statement of the result thereof in the official state paper, and shall communicate the same to the next legislature at the commencement of the session, and he shall also deliver to the state treasurer a certified copy thereof, with a statement of the result of the canvass upon the subject immediately after the completion of the canvass.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,000,000
all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

By striking out the words "equal to," and inserting after the words "not exceeding," the words "in value." By striking out the following words: "But such public stocks shall in all cases be, or be made to be equal to a stock producing six per cent per annum; and it shall not be lawful for the bank comptroller to take such stock at a rate above its par value, nor above its current market value in the city of New York at the time of deposite, by such person or association of persons;" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stock which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks; but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks;" so that the said section shall henceforth read as follows: "Whenever, hereafter, any person or association of persons, formed for the purpose of banking under the provisions of this chapter, shall duly assign and transfer in trust to the treasurer of this state, any portion of the public stocks issued or to be issued by the United States or any state stocks, on which full interest is annually paid, such person or association of persons shall be entitled to receive from the bank comptroller an amount of such circulating notes of different denominations, registered and countersigned, and not exceeding in value the amount of public stocks assigned and tranferred as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stocks, which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks, but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks: Provided, that if in the opinion of the bank comptroller, together with the governor and the secretary of state, any stocks offered shall be deemed insecure, they shall not be received as such securities under the provisions of this act; and provided, further, that from and after the first day of December, 1861, the bank comptroller shall not receive as security for circulating bank notes, any other public stocks than those issued by the state of Wisconsin and the United States.

SEC. 2. Any public stocks described in the preceding section, and issued at a rate of interest less than five per cent per annum, to be receivable by the bank comptroller, shall be made to be equal to stocks producing five per cent per annum.

SEC. 3. Section 40 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, is hereby amended by inserting between the words "located" and "to," in the 19th line of said section, the words "or to the judge at chambers."

SEC. 4. Every bank and banking association now organized in this state, and all banks and banking associations that shall be organized before the 1st of day December, 1861, except such banks and banking associations as are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall, on or before said first day of December next, appoint an agent, who shall keep an office in the city of Milwaukee or in the city of Madison, for the redemption of all circulating notes issued by such bank or banking association, which shall be presented to such agent for payment or redemption.

SEC. 5. The appointment of such agent shall be made in writing, and such written appointment shall be delivered to the bank comptroller on or before said first day of December next, who shall file the same in his office. If any bank or banking association shall neglect or refuse to appoint such agent within the time above mentioned, the bank comptroller shall appoint such agent for such bank or banking association.

SEC. 6. The bank comptroller shall, immediately after said first day of December next, during such time as he may deem advisable, publish a list of such agents in one daily newspaper published in the city of Madison, and in one daily newspaper published in the city of Milwaukee, the expense whereof shall be equally divided among the several banks or banking associations so published, and be paid by them to the comptroller on demand, under penalty of forfeiture of one hundred dollars, to be collected and applied as provided in respect to the forfeiture named in section 19, chapter 71, of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 7. Every bank or banking association hereafter organized, shall before receiving any circulating notes from the bank comptroller, appoint an agent for the purposes of this act; and such appointment shall be immediately published in the manner aforesaid, at the expense of such bank or banking association, to be collected in the manner above provided.

SEC. 8. Appointments of agents made in pursuance of this act, may be revoked and new appointments of agents made from time to time, by delivering such revocation and appointment to the bank comptroller, who shall cause the same to be published as before provided.

SEC. 9. It shall be lawful for any number of banks or banking associations, authorized by this act, to appoint an agent to associate together for raising a joint fund, to be placed in the hands of their common agent for the redemption of their circulating notes, in the city of Milwaukee or Madison, and also the circulating notes of other banks in such manner, and under such regulations as may be agreed upon, and to employ such agents and clerks as they may deem necessary to carry on the business of such common agency; but nothing in this section contained shall authorize the redemption or purchase by such agency of any circulating notes at a rate of discount greater than is herein provided for, nor relieve such banks from any duty or liability required or imposed by this act.

SEC. 10. Every such bank or banking association in this state, except such banks and banking associations as now are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall redeem and pay on demand, in the lawful money of the United States, all circulating notes issued by such banks or banking associations, presented for redemption at the office of the agent of such bank or banking association, during the usual hours of business of bankers, between the hours of ten and three o'clock, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent.

SEC. 11. Every bank or banking association, whose agent shall neglect or refuse to redeem its notes on demand, as aforesaid, shall, on proof being made to the bank comptroller of such neglect or refusal, by the affidavit of the person who presented said notes for redemption or payment, and on depositing in his office the notes so presented, be subject to the same penalties, and be proceeded against in the same manner, as is now provided by law for cases where the circulating notes of any bank or banking association are protested for non-payment, unless the comptroller shall be satisfied that there is a good and legal defence against the payment of such notes.

SEC. 12. Every bank and banking association shall redeem its circulating notes as now provided by law, but in case of neglect or refusal to redeem its notes on presentation at its counter, and of protest therefor, such bank or banking association, if not located within the city of Milwaukee or the city of Madison, shall not be liable to the holder of such notes for damages: Provided, it shall within fifteen days after receiving notice from the comptroller to pay the same, redeem said notes in the lawful money of the United States, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum; Provided, that the officer or officers of such bank or banking association so neglecting or refusing to redeem its notes on demand, may endorse upon the bills or package of bills so presented, an acknowledgement of such presentation and refusal, and waiving protest upon the same; and such endorsement shall be held as evidence of the statement therein made.

SEC. 13. No bank or banking association shall hereafter receive upon the deposite of bonds, circulating notes to an amount exceeding three times its bona fide cash capital actually paid in, and the bank comptroller is hereby authorized and required to ascertain what the actual cash capital of any bank or banking association applying for circulation, except in exchange for mutilated bills, may be, and for this purpose he is authorized to examine any person on oath, and to compel answers under oath, from any officer or stockholder of any bank or banking association so applying, or any other person.

SEC. 14. No bank or banking association shall hereafter be organized in this state, nor shall any more circulating notes be issued to any bank or banking association in this state, unless said bank or banking association shall have a bona fide cash capital of at least fifteen thousand dollars actually paid in, which shall remain in such bank or banking association as capital, and employed in legitimate banking at the place where the bank is located; and it is hereby declared that the bonds deposited with the bank comptroller shall not be considered as any evidence of the existence of capital in any such bank or banking association, nor of the amount and extent of such capital; and it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller, before issuing any more circulating notes to any such bank or banking association now organized, or that shall be hereafter organized, except in exchange for mutilated notes, to satisfy himself by an examination under oath of an officer or stockholder of such bank or banking association that it has fully complied with the provisions of this section, and of the next preceding section of this act, and for the purposes of such examination the comptroller, or in his absence the deputy comptroller, is hereby authorized to administer oaths; Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to permit any bank to issue circulating notes to any greater amount than its nominal capital.

SEC. 15. From and after the first day of December next it shall not be lawful for any bank or banking association, banker, broker, company or corporation, to circulate or attempt to circulate, or to pay out as money, any bill, note or other evidence of debt, issued or purporting to have been issued by any bank, banking association, company, corporation or individual located or residing out of this state, unless said bill, or note or evidence of debt shall, for the last six months preceding such circulating or paying out, have been redeemable in the city of New York or Boston in current money of the United States, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent; and the decision of the bank comptroller as to the rate of such discount shall be final and conclusive. Every bank or banking association, banker or broker, corporation or company, offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit for each and every offense the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with costs of suit in the name and for the use of any person who shall sue for the same and prosecute such suit to judgment in any court having cognizance thereof.

SEC. 16. Each and every person owning or holding stock in any bank or banking association, who shall sell, transfer or assign his stock or any portion thereof, in any such bank or banking association, shall be held, and remain for the term of six months from and after such sale, transfer or assignment, as aforesaid, personally liable to the amount of stock so as aforesaid sold, transferred or assigned by him for the payment of all the debts and liabilities of such bank or banking association, existing at the time of such sale, transfer or assignment.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

SEC. 18. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with, or in any way contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 19. At the general election to be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, in the year 1861, at all the usual places of holding elections in this state, for the election of all officers required by law then to be elected, the question whether this act shall become a law and go into effect, or in any manner be in force, shall be submitted to the people, and if the same shall be approved by a majority of all the votes cast on the subject, it shall go into effect; otherwise, it shall not go into effect nor be in force.

SEC. 20. The votes cast on the subject specified in the last preceding section shall be by separate ballot, and shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, on each of them, the words: "For Amendments to the Banking Law;" or "Against Amendments to the Banking Law," which words shall indicate the vote for or against the approval of this act; and the ballots so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as the votes cast for state officers are required by law to be canvassed, and the secretary of state shall immediately, on the completion of said canvass, publish a statement of the result thereof in the official state paper, and shall communicate the same to the next legislature at the commencement of the session, and he shall also deliver to the state treasurer a certified copy thereof, with a statement of the result of the canvass upon the subject immediately after the completion of the canvass.

GREAT INDUCEMENTS OFFERED

FOR

Getting up Clubs.

Daily, Tri-Weekly and Weekly!

THE Democrat will continue to be a faithful advocate and supporter of the principles of the republican party. Its energies will be especially devoted to the west—to the advocacy of western interests and the assertion of western rights. The administration of Abraham Lincoln shall receive its cordial and unfaltering support. The great measures of a Pacific railroad on the central route; free lands for the landless; the improvement of river navigation; retrenchment and reform in all the departments of the federal government, will be urged with that zeal and devotion which have won for the Democrat its present position. On all questions it will boldly espouse the right, and only seek its advancement through the public good.

ITS NEWS, LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENTS, shall be all that readers could desire. The Political, Agricultural and Manufacturing interests of the country shall receive due attention.

THE COMMERCIAL CHARACTER

of the Democrat is well established. This important interest is under the management of one thoroughly familiar with commercial affairs, and we pledge our honor that its figures shall always be the true index of trade here, while it furnishes daily more commercial news than any other paper in Missouri.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION IS DIRECTED TO OUR GREAT DOLLAR WEEKLY!

The largest paper in the country for the price of one dollar.

THE TRI-WEEKLY DEMOCRAT,

at $4.00 per annum, is the most complete paper of its kind in the west. It is especially valuable to River and Railroad Merchants. It contains the complete Commercial, River and Telegraph news of each Daily issue, besides all the interesting news matter and editorial of the Daily.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Speech of Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson.

On Saturday last, the Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson addressed a large gathering of the yeomanry of Tompkins and adjoining counties, at Ithaca. We extract the following patriotic sentiment from the address:

"Our institutions are now menaced with destruction. Is it by a foreign foe? No; it has stood the thunder storm and defied the world in arms, and now it is to be destroyed, if destroyed it must be, by the insidious worm of ambition that is gnawing at its heart. Those who have been reared under this government, who have been pampered at its treasury, upon whose brows have been wreathed the choicest laurels, are tearing its heart, corroding its very vitals. And we are told that they are brethren, and that there must be no contention with them. Yes, they are our brethren. But shall we stand tamely by and see them bathe their hands in the blood of our venerable mother? No; she must be defended at all hazards from these murderous parricides. And the crime is greater and more heinous because they are brothers. If they were remorseless savages, or prowling Arabs, they might have a better apology to offer. But they are attempting to overthrow her who gave them existence, and nursed them in the lap of indulgence, and dandled them on the knee, and placed arms in their hands to defend her, with which they attempt to destroy her. Yes, they are our brethren. But they are not the first beings who have rebelled. There was rebellion even in heaven—blind, heedless, haughty, dark ambition caused Satan to rebel there—for just about the same cause as this rebellion. And the end of this rebellion will be the same. Those who instituted it will be hurried down to darkness and chains forever by an indignant and outraged people.

When this rebellion reared its snaky head, the whole American people trembled. We felt the earth throb, and heave, and beat as with the convulsions of a volcano. I found it, perhaps, more difficult than any individual in the United States, if not in the world, so far as personal convenience or considerations were concerned, and personal friendships, and domestic relations, and kindred associations could influence, to take ground against this rebellion.

Many years in the senate of the United States, friendships had grown up, and the course of public affairs had clustered about me southern sympathies which gave me a position in the southern states that no other man in the north or south held. For myself, therefore, I found it more difficult for these reasons to sever these ties than any other one could have done; but, in a patriotic cause, I did not find it patriotic at all. With the very first booming of the gun that fired upon Sumter, I declared that I was in the field against the rebellion.

When I see such an assemblage as this, it tells no more. It speaks to the heart more eloquently than all the tongues of preachers and speakers; than all the lessons the press can give—it tells me that the popular heart is sound to the core. I see before me and all around me trembling old age leaning upon his staff; stalwart manhood, with strong muscles in his arm; youth, ready to bare his bosom in battle; woman, with her gentle and anxious face, pleading for her country;—maidens, trembling, fearing that some great calamity awaits their happy family, and little children, with their cunning, inquiring eyes wishing to know why this vast concourse, and why that old man with grey hairs talks so earnestly on a subject in which they intuitively feel danger, but do not fully comprehend. Ah, my fair haired boy, it is that this government may be saved to you, that its blessings of liberty may not be wrested from you, but that your little eyeballs may not be blasted nor seared, nor your heart wrung with this accursed destroyer, disunion! that no evil shall come to blast these fair and fertile fields.

I feel strong in the pride of my position, not of myself, but as your representative, and representative of the national sentiment. I have stood in the high places of the land, in senates and in forums, with the great and honored of the land—the Clays, the Websters, the Bentons, and the Calhouns—and I feel that I stand on higher ground to-day, as a free American citizen, vindicating the integrity of our goverment against traitors and their rebellion, than ever before. Flunky politicians and bastard democrats fear I am going to my political funeral. Well, I shall have, from present appearances, a pretty handsome procession, and don't want them for mourners. You know perfectly well what have been my political antecedents. It is not material for the purposes of this question. I lay aside my politics; I ask you to lay aside yours; I shall not go politically; I do not ask you to come to me, and any one who will attempt to manufacture politics out of this matter, or drag political parties into it, is no patriot—is a schemer and a little better than those who assail the country with arms. As to the Administration, it was not the Administration of my choosing. I care nothing for that.—Where it is right I mean to sustain it; where it is strong, I mean to aid it; where it is not strong, I will help it to be stronger.—And it is the duty of every good citizen to stay up the hands of the Administration in order to that it may do its whole and perfect work.

But no; we hear that Mr. Lincoln is not able to conduct the Government successfully. For Heaven's sake let us take right hold and help it—not attempt to discourage and put it down. And it is my opinion that every friend of the Administration should help, and that every opponent of the Administration should help it two fold—all should take hold and persist in this great work not as Democrats, not as Republicans, not as Americans, not Abolitionists, nor anything else, except as American citizens, having a destiny, a country, a heritage that concerns us all.

How cowardly, how treacherous in us if we were to dislocate or enable others to destroy this Government. Divide this Union! Commence by dividing and all is lost! Sever the human frame and then ask the head and lower limbs to perform their functions as before. Let a great rebellion succeed, you must let lesser rebellions succeed from every quarter—from State to State, from county to county, from town to town, down to your very school district, and finally if you have a horse and another wants it he will go and take it.

But it is no time for honyed words or phrases—it is no time for sugar-coated pills—you must give medicine that will take effect and operate pretty thoroughly too. Mr. Lincoln has been much complained of that he has suspended the habeas corpus, and has interfered with the private rights, and has curtailed the liberty of the press, and has done other things of which they complain. Now, as his opponent, I sustain him most in the very acts they condemn. (Cheers.) His act that I approve of most is his suspending the habeas corpus; and I have said, and I repeat that if he had suspended the traitors it related to, in come cases, I would have been glad of it. I uphold him in arresting the voice of a traitorous press which was attempting to foster and encourage and stimulate treason. (Cheers.) I agree to his arresting and consigning to prison those villians who are acting as spies and attempting to destroy our Government. (Cheers, and cries of "Good, good.") I sustain him fully and cheerfully in it. It is war a power, nothing more or less. A wicked, treasonable, rebellion fastens a terrible war on the Government and then whines and gets others to whimper for it, that they are arrested that their treason is blocked. Mr. Lincoln would have deserved impeachment if he had not exercised these powers.—They were exercised by General Jackson, and they have been exercised by every military commander who has had treachery to deal with in the history of the world.

TESTIMONIAL.

To Whom it May Concern:

I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom, as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of Sight to one eye. He afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

The Blairs and Fremont.

The arrest of Col. F. P. Blair, Jr., by Gen. Fremont, will take people generally by surprise. The Blairs have been the warm personal friends of Fremont. It was through the influence of the elder Blair that Fremont became the candidate of the republican party for the presidency in 1856, and it is understood that the Blair family urged his appointment as Major General of the Western Department. The quarrel, therefore, out of which has grown the arrest of Col. Blair, must have been of recent origin, and as it exists between those who have been very intimate, it will doubtless be bitter in its character; especially on the part of the Blairs, who are somewhat proud and arrogant in their natures. The visit of Mrs. Fremont to Washington, and of Montgomery Blair to St. Louis, it is said, had reference to this difficulty, and not to the difference of opinion between the president and Gen. Fremont in relation to the proclamation of the latter. The Union men of St. Louis, especially the Germans, are said to sustain Fremont, and to attribute to F. P. Blair, Jr., the misfortunes which the Union cause has suffered in Missouri.

Western Virginia.

The Union forces in Western Virginia have been quite successful in several encounters with the enemy, within a few days. It is probable that Generals Rozencrans and Cox have formed a junction ere this, and that they will make an advance. Floyd and Wise are in rapid retreat towards Lewisburg, where they have to cross the Greenbrier river, to get away from the combined Union army. The poor success of the rebel generals in Western Virginia, at this season, must convince them that their safety requires an immediate retreat, and we shall not be surprised to hear that they have given up the enterprise entirely and retired to the east side of the mountains. If we had a strong federal army, with abundant means of transportation, a demonstration might be made upon Beauregard from this direction.

The government is in receipt of satisfactory evidence that no privateer has been fitted out in a British port, notwithstanding the common assertion to the contrary.

A Sacred Thing.

Mat. Carpenter, in his letter on slavery and the war, says that slavery is thought by some to to be a "sacred thing." This must be so. We may confiscate a rebel's lands, cattle, horses, grain, ships and money—we may take his personal rights from him, or even his life, and it is all right; but the moment a rebel's slave is touched there is a thrill of horror sent through the mind. There is an awe for this assumed right in the ownership of a man which is found existing all over the country. It amounts to a superstition, and is almost equal to that which fills the mind of the poor pagan when he looks upon his wooden god. Inasmuch as this reverence for the system of slavery is universal and national in this country, ought it not to be represented in a tangible form somewhere, so that its devotees could have their thougts directed to one point, in their devotions. Suppose we have an "ebony idol" set up at Washington, or some other central point, for this purpose.

Government Telegraphic Dispatches.

The telegraphic operator in this city informs us that no messages will be received for the war department at Washington, unless prepaid. This rule is rendered necessary in consequence of the following order:

The following order was issued by the war department to-day to all telegraph offices:

WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, }
WASHINGTON, Sept. 10, 1861. }

GENERAL ORDER.—The attention of officers and all other persons having business with the war department or its different branches, is called to the excessive use of the telegraph in cases where it is entirely unnecessary, and in which the business would be much more certainly and correctly transmitted through the mail line. Nine out of ten of the dispatches received are of this character, while the telegraph should be used only in cases of urgent and imperative necessity where the delay of the mail would be actually prejudicial to the public interest. No dispatches will be noticed here unless this necessity is recognized, and in such cases they must be paid for by the party sending them, who may look for remuneration to the quartermaster's department on producing a copy of the dispatch to show that it was upon public business, and that the matter demanded this mode of transaction.

By order.
(Signed) L. THOMAS,
Adjutant General.
GEO. D. RUGGLES, Ass't Adj. Gen.

FROM WASHINGTON.—We had a call this morning from Fenton Stevens, who has been acting as assistant quartermaster of the fifth regiment, during the illness of the regular quartermaster. He left Washington on Friday, and says the Light Guard boys are all well and in fine spirits. Gen. King's brigade occupies an advanced position on the right wing of the army, about three miles from the Chain Bridge. They have built a fortification which they call Fort Advance. It is superior to Fort Corcoran, and before Arlington Heights are captured, considerable of a fight will take place in its vicinity. Mr. Stevens says there are immense preparations for the defence of Washington, and that there is not the slightest probability that the enemy can succeed in taking the city. The health of the troops is good. The second regiment is getting along well under their new officers.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL.—D. H. Johnson, Esq., of La Crosse, member of the last legislature, has been appointed assistant attorney general in place of J. O. Calver, Esq., the latter having accepted an appointment as paymaster in the army.

TREASURY NOTES.—Mr. Stevens, who has just returned from Washington, showed us some five and ten dollar treasury notes. They are about the same size and have the general appearance of bank notes. The government redeems them on demand at the office of the assistant treasurer in New York. Mr. S. informs us that they are more popular than gold among the soldiers, and that large amounts will be sent home by the volunteers.

GREAT SUCCESS OF THE NATIONAL LOAN.—The feature of the day has been the demand for the treasury notes, which summed up $1,037,500. This is fifty per cent larger than the average since the loan was called for, and is a hopeful sign for the future of the market. With what is subscribed elsewhere the supply of money to the government by this means must be largely in excess of its disbursements. With victory attending our armies, New York alone could supply the government with all the means it required.

So far very few of the demand notes have been presented for payment in this city, a fact which goes to show public confidence in them. It is evident that the country would stand a large issue of these notes if done judiciously.

There is a liberal demand for all descriptions, and prices are advanced to 90¼a90⅜ for the coupon 6 per cents of 1881; 90a90½ for the registered, and 80a80½ for the 5 per cents of 1874.

THE PRESIDENT AND FREMONT.—A dispatch from the private secretary of General Fremont to a gentleman in Cincinnati, is conclusive that General Fremont has not been removed from his command.

But the telegraph brings us the the President's proclamation, repudiating that part of General Fremont's proclamation of Aug. 3d relating to the confiscation of property and the liberation of slaves. The President falls back on the act of Congress which is far behind Fremont's proclamation.

We fear the effect of this action. It will do much to revive secession Missouri.—The men who are secretly urging on the rebels in Missouri were terrified at Fremont's proclamation. The order of the President will relieve them of their fears, and they will again renew their covert proceeding. Even if Fremont has gone a little further than the President desired, it would have been better to sustained him.—Backward steps never lead to good results.—Chicago Post, 15th inst., Douglas Democratic paper.

A MINT OF MONEY BY EXPRESS.—The Chicago Tribune of to-day says: "Sunday morning Mr. Philips, route agent of the United States Express Company, came into this city, having in charge shipments of gold from California and Pike's Peak, to the amount of one million dollars, and a large amount of bullion and money packages for eastern consignees, among these latter, nine goodly bags of gold dust, weighing one hundred and fifty pounds apiece. This shipment comes from Council Bluffs, overland to Cedar Rapids, thence to Rock Island. This is a new route for such shipments, owing to interruptions on the Hannibal and St. Joseph route through Missouri.

Last Night's Report.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.

Leavenworth papers of the 11th give the following account of the late engagement between Rains and Montgomery. On the 2d inst. 600 rebel forces under Rains approached Fort Scott. Messenger despatched to Montgomery, who had 500 men, says he pursued Rains 11 miles, killing several of his men, when coming upon the main body of the enemy the battle commenced, the rebels having five cannon, Montgomery one howitzer only. The fight lasted two hours, when Montgomery slowly retreated, keeping up a running fire until nightfall. The enemy's force is reported by prisoners at from 2,000 to 3,000.

Twenty negroes have been declared free under Gen. Fremont's proclamation, being property of leading rebels.

Col. Cook, with 1800 regulars, left Fort Laramie on the 2d inst. for Fort Leavenworth.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.

The schooner Mary Wood, from the West Indies, owned in North Carolina, arrived here to-day in charge of Prize Master Nicholson, the crew consisting principally of members of Gen. Butler's and the naval brigade. Her cargo is salt, sugar and molasses. She was captured at Cape Hatteras.

To-morrow will be celebrated in this city as the anniversary of the federal constitution by parade of home guards and an oration by Hon. Geo. M. Dallas, at Independence Square. There will be a general suspension of business.

FARTHER POINT, Sept. 16.

The steamship Anglo Saxon arrived off this port this evening. She left Liverpool at 11 o'clock A. M. on the 5th and Londonderry on the 6th inst. The Nova Scotia reached Londonderry on the evening of the 4th. Political news by the Anglo Saxon is unimportant. The London Times says the impression seemed to be very general at Liverpool that passengers to or from the United States are required to be cautioned at the present juncture against any ready expression of opinion on the civil war.—The policy of making a short time precaution against the contingencies of the cotton supplies and of the glutted state of a distant market for manufacturing goods continued to make progress in Lancashire.

The Times in an editorial on the present aspect of American affairs argues that enough has transpired to show that the subjugation of the south is next to impossible, and submission improbable.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.

Special to Post.—There are no important movements on the other side of the Potomac, but military authorities expect important feints to be made at different points along the line.

It is understood that several of our army officers are busily engaged in returning fugitive slaves to their masters.

There are rumors this morning that Gen. Fremont has resigned his command, and that his action has been taken in consequence of the restrictions placed upon his proclamation by the letter of the President. Mayor Berrett, of this city, proposes to resign the office of mayor.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.

The Baltimore American of this morning has a letter from the Point of Rocks, dated Sunday, giving additional particulars of the Doenstown engagement. Col. Geary commanded in person. Our loss is one killed, and five slightly wounded. Our troops behaved like veterans. Companies B, E and I of the 28th Pennsylvania regiment and two companies of the 13th New York comprised our force. During the fight a rebel was seen taking aim at Col. Geary, when the Colonel grasped a rifle from a soldier and shot the rebel on the spot. Our troops are in fine spirits.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.

It is stated that one of the schooners lately captured at Hatteras Inlet was from Boston, with a cargo of boots and shoes.

The light house on Body Island has been blown up, and that on Oregon Inlet abandoned by the rebels.

The bark Chas. Brewer, and schooners Mary E. Hopkins, F. H. Russell, and Julia A. Rich, were seized to-day.

Seven southerners were arrested aboard the City of Manchester, this morning, who have been profusely expressing secession sentiments on the voyage. Their baggage was inspected, but nothing treasonable being found, they were released.

Abbe McMaster, late editor of the American Journal, took up compulsory lodgings in the classic shades of Fort Lafayette to-day.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16.

Col. F. P. Blair, Jr., was ordered yesterday by the provost marshal to report himself under arrest on a general charge of using disrespectful language when alluding to his superior officer, with reference to the removal of Gen. Fremont.

The Democrat of this morning has the following:

"The removal of Gen. Fremont we do not think has been seriously considered by the administration. They have undoubtedly charges preferred which will be duly and properly investigated, but these proceedings, we are now satisfied, have never looked to a result such as his removal from this department. His extraordinary energy and efficiency are too highly appreciated by the government, and his measures are too deeply seated in the affections of the people of the loyal states to admit the probability of any such event."

The Republican learns that Col. Marshal of Lexington, a few days since took possession of a quantity of property belonging to the state, including books, papers, and the great seal of the state which Jackson took from Jefferson City.

After a defeat of state forces at Booneville by Lyon, Jackson publicly announced his intention to establish the capitol at Lexington, claiming that he had full authority to do so.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16.

Col. Blair's arrest was made by Provost Marshal McKinstry, by order of Gen. Fremont. The charge is, writing letters to members of the cabinet, in defamation of his superior officer, being an infraction of the articles of war.

As between the administration and Fremont, and the Blairs and Fremont, the sympathy of the most loyal men here, especially that of the Germans, greatly preponderates in the general's favor.

The quarrel is regarded by everybody, save the secessionists, as a great misfortune, and the hope is general that mutual explanations will adjust it, and everything go on harmoniously.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.

The whole story about Fremont is not yet told. There is a question of courtesy between him and the president, and one of extravagance in the management of his department. It is said that the president, when advised of his forthcoming proclamation, wished him to withhold it until the cabinet could consult. It appeared the next morning. [We dont believe that yarn.—Tribune.] His activity has nevertheless been very great.

Military men in high authority still consider an attack imminent; but the prevalent opinion of the army is that the rebels will not venture it unless in the madness of desperation. No one doubts that an assault on our entrenchments will be suicide. The indications of a movement are less than two days since.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16.

Postmaster General Blair, and Quartermaster General Meigs, left for Washington this morning. It is understood that the precise charge on which Colonel Blair was arrested is insubordination in communicating, while an army officer, with authorities at Washington, making complaints against and using disreputable language towards General Fremont, with a view of effecting his removal. It is stated that letters written by Colonel Blair are now in possession of General Fremont.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 16.

The police are arresting secession members of the Legislature as fast as they reach Baltimore on their way to Frederick.

There will therefore be no quorum present. It is presumed that all the secession members will be arrested. There are fifteen of the House and three of the Senate, to be arrested. Several of these are said to have fled from the State.

DARNSTOWN, Md., Sept. 14.

There are floating rumors of Gen. Johnston having been greatly strengthened along the river line. There has been increased activity in all departments of this division within the past week.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.

The Ellsworth Fire Zouaves are to be mustered out of service. Their insubordination has rendered them unfit for service.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 16.

Subscriptions for the national loan opened to-day in this city. A good start was made. Twenty-nine subscribers have taken $145,000.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 19.

Three hundred new muskets were found buried in the rear of the old theater, supposed to have been concealed by Kane's police after April 19th.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 14.

The Richmond Examiner of the 11th says that 156 Yankee prisoners were sent to Castle Pinckney, South Carolina—among them Col. Wilcox, of the Michigan First; Col. Corcoran, of the New York Sixty-ninth; Lieut. Col. Neff, of the Second Kentucky; Major John W. Potter, of the Thirty-Eighth New York; Rev. G. W. Dodge, chaplain of the Eleventh New York; Rev. H. Eddy, chaplain of the Second Connecticut; Surgeon Griswold, of the thirty-eighth New York; Grey, of the United States army; Connelly, of the Second New York; Harris, of the Second Rhode Island; Captains Donney, of the Eleventh New York; Connolly, of the Twenty-second New York; Fish, of the Thirty-second New York; Farnsh, of the Seventy-ninth New York; Drew, of the Second Vermont; Shurtliff, of the Seventh Ohio; L. Gordon, of the Eleventh Massachusetts; Whitington and Jenkins; Lieuts. Toy, of the Twenty-fifth New York; Hamblin (son of the actor of that name) of the Thirty-eighth New York: Underhill, of the Eleventh New York; Worcester, of the Eighty-first New York; Dempsey, of the Second New York; Wilcox, of the Seventh Ohio; Gordon, of the Second Dragoons, United States army; Caleff, of the Eleventh Massachusetts; Connolly, of the Sixty-ninth New York. Captain Rickets, of the United States army was to have accompanied the party, but is not sufficiently recovered from his wounds to undertake the journey.

Serious fears are entertained for the crops of the south. The rains of August are reported as the heaviest and the most general ever known in the south, and have been very disastrous. The Savannah Republican claims a fair rice crop, but admits that the continuous rains have damaged it somewhat.

The Baton Rouge Advocate says the cotton crops in that vicinity are literally covered with the army worm, and that the fate of the crop will be sealed in a few days, for the rain and heavy atmosphere are favorable to the worm.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.

The confederates at Fairfax issue rations for one hundred and eighty thousand men daily.

Among their regiments are Longstreet's, Major Walton's, Brigadier General Walker's, Hartstein's and Wigfall's Texas, and Gen. Toomb's Georgia Brigade.

The administration is not satisfied with the explanation of the Spanish minister about the proclamation of the captain general of Cuba allowing vessels with the confederate flag to enter Cuban ports.

Such action is regarded as sufficient casus belli, and has occupied the attention of the president and secretary of state the entire day to-day.

There is good reason to believe that Spain will recognize the southern confederacy in a very short time.

ELKWATER, Va., Sept. 16.

The body of Col. John A. Washington was sent over to the enemy yesterday, under a flag of truce, which, on its way, was met by a similar flag coming from the enemy for the purpose of obtaining information as to his condition.

On the 12th a detachment of 300 men from the Fourteenth Indiana and the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Ohio regiments dispersed three Tennessee regiments under Gen. Anderson, on the west side of Cheat Mountain, completely routing them, killing eighty, and obtaining most of their equipments. Our loss was eight killed. The enemy made an advance on Elkwater the same day, with a force supposed to be 15,000, but were driven back by detachments of men from the Fifteenth Indiana, Third and Sixth Ohio regiments, and shells from Loomis' battery. They retired some eight or ten miles.

A strong force of Arkansas, Tennessee, and Virginia troops also threatened the east side of Cheat Mountain, but have not yet had a general engagement.

A shell thrown from one of Loomis' guns two miles into the enemy's camp killed ten and wounded four.

The Thirteenth Indiana Regiment had a severe skirmish with superior numbers of the enemy on the 12th, and killed ten or twelve, with trifling loss.

As the enemy advanced on Elkwater, the column was handsomely checked by a detachment of the Seventeenth Indiana.

Lieut. Merell, of the topographical engineers, was taken prisoner by the rebels, while on his way to Cheat Mountain.

CAIRO, Sept. 16.

A deserter from the rebel camp at Columbus, Ky., reports that on Friday last the rebels, 10,000 strong, under Gen. Johnston had marching orders—their destination being Paducah. He also reports that Jeff. Thompson's forces are at Belmont, Missouri.

The crew of the steamer John Gault, seized by the government, were released today.

Eight hundred infantry and four pieces of Capt. Taylor's light artillery, under command of Col. Ogleby, made a reconnoissance below Norfolk, Mo., on Saturday. They saw 300 mounted rebels, who ran on seeing the federal troops.

All is quiet at Paducah.

MAYSVILLE, Sept. 14.

Hon. Joseph Holt, John J. Crittenden, Andy Johnson and Horace Maynard are advertised to speak at a Union barbacue near this place, on Saturday, the 21st inst.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 15.

Gen. Zollicoffer telegraphed to Gov. Magoffin that he had occupied the three long mountains in Knox county, Ky., and would not leave unless the federal troops did.

Special dispatch to the New York World.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.

It is more than ever evident that the rebels do not contemplate an advance. Time will soon demonstrate the correctness of this statement.

Col. Miles is busily engaged in procuring evidence for a court martial to investigate his conduct at Bull Run. The court meets on the 15th inst.

Gen. McClellan recognizes the fact that the especially vulnerable point of the enemy is on the Atlantic coast, and will accordingly wait the auspicious moment when a tremendous force is to flank the enemy from the sea, and hurl its columns like a regiments of thunderbolts over the "sacred soil," while Rosencranz acts in concert upon another wing of the enemy. Then, in the general scattering which must result, McClellan will appreciate and improve the opportunity, and the rebels will see him at the head of his army outside the intrenchments.

We have facilities for obtaining information from the rebels, and material that will be called into action against them at the proper time, of which they are obviously in the profoundest ignorance, and must remain so for a while longer.

It is evident that the rebels can at any moment close the navigation of the Potomac. Some of our high government officials are in the habit of visiting Fortress Monroe occasionally, and it is possible that a cabinet minister or general may be captured on the river some fine day.

Those who express concern about defraying the expenses of the war forget that all is not expenditure. The treasury department is now in daily receipt of about half a million of dollars from the proceeds of small notes alone. When demand notes are received they will be re-issued instead of being cancelled.

Several companies of Berdan's sharpshooters have arrived. They will be distributed in detachments among the brigades, for the special purpose of picking off the leading rebel officers, in case of an engagement.

General McClellan makes it a rule to inspect the entire line from Alexandria to the Chain Bridge, at least three times a week, and this, with the reviews of the different brigades, keeps him in the saddle a good deal of the time.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DESPATCHES.

FREDERICK, Md., Sept. 16.

The legislature meets to-morrow. There will not be a quorum. No secession ordinance is prepared, nor will one be passed. The Maryland secessionists have nothing to hope for from the legislature.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.

Lieut. Col. Atwood of the 6th Wisconsin volunteers was honorably discharged from service to-day, in consequence of physical inability to endure the fatigues of camp life. His retirement is universally regretted by the regiment, for he was an able officer in the volunteer service.

The following Colonels have been appointed to take command of the Kentucky infantry and cavalry regiments: Thomas Brownlow, 1st infantry; S. S. Fry, 2d infantry; S. T. Dowan, 3d infantry; Frank Wolford, 1st cavalry.

While the government of the United is doing the best they can, under the rules of war, to take care of and protect the health of the rebel prisoners now in their possession, Jeff. Davis, or Beauregard, or Johnson, or all of them, have sent our prisoners to Castle Pinckney, the nearest fort to the city of Charleston, South Carolina, where fever prevails extensively at this season of the year. If our officers whom they have taken prisoners and confined in Castle Pinckney survive the present season it will be contrary to the well known theory of southerners, for they have always asserted as a reason why slave labor must be employed, that northerners could not survive the malaria and fever that prevail in that section. The rebels may suppose that the confinement of the officers of the Union army in Charleston may prove a protection to that place. We shall see.

Tribune's special.—Last evening the rebels approached our left wing in force, destroyed several grain racks and other property, and captured a number of cattle belonging to Union farmers.

In the evening, on a false alarm, General Slocum's brigade was under arms in four minutes. It turned out that several contrabands had arrived on their masters horses, and that some of our men had found in the bushes an intelligent free negro from Fairfax, who says the greater part of the rebels are arriving between Fairfax and Alexandria, where they have thrown up breastworks. He heard Lawyer Hunter, owner of Hunter Mills, say the rebels would take Arlington Heights and Alexandria this week with 200,000 men, and from there shell Washington.

After the fight at Lewinsville Beauregard was sent for to bring reinforcements from Manassas, as they feared we would over power them. He came with a considerable body of troops.

Owing to information received by the post office department that the Hannibal and St. Joseph railroad is entirely unprotected from the rebels, and that they have St. Joseph in their hands, it has ordered the California mail to be carried via Davenport and Council Bluffs. The department has also received information that all the officers and employees of the overland mail company are rebels.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 17.

The names of the killed and wounded at Darnestown have not yet been received.—The first account of the affair was received by the American from an anonymous correspondence, and was printed at too late an hour to obtain any verifications.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 17.

The republicans here have concluded to abandon their party organization and take up any good sound Union men in the coming local election. Gen. Theodore Runyon, who was a Douglas elector, is a prominent candidate for mayor. The peace party have made their nominations, coupled with resolutions sustaining the government, the full force of which may be appreciated when it is known that their candidate for mayor expressed the opinion that this war, on the part of the south, is as just and holy as was ours of the Revolution.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 17.

The Old Point boat has arrived, but brings no news of interest. The news of the repulse of the rebels in Western Virginia caused great rejoicing here among Union men.

FREDERICK, Md., Sept. 17.

Not more than twenty-five members of the two houses of the Maryland legislature are yet here. Both houses will meet and adjourn till to-morrow. The impression is that neither house, for want of a quorum, will be able to transact any business.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 17.

The anniversary of the adoption of the constitution is being duly celebrated here. Salutes were fired at sunrise and at noon. The Home Guard also turned out and paraded the streets 3,000 strong, escorting the orator of the day, Hon. Geo. M. Dallas, to Independence Square.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 17.

In the house a message from Gov. Magoffin was received, communicating a telegraphic dispatch from Gen. Zollicoffer, announcing that the government of Tennessee demanded the occupation of Cumberland Gap, and the three long mountains in Kentucky, and that he had done so, and should retain his position until the federal forces were withdrawn and federal camps broken up.

Also a message from Thomas C. Reynolds, Lieutenant Governor of Missouri, asking what course he intended to take in view of the occupation of the Mississippi river below the mouth of the Ohio by the federal forces, in violation of her neutrality.

No southern newspapers received to-night.

Correspondence of the Janesville Gazette.

Quavers from the Capital.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13, 1861.

I send you a short letter to-day by assistant quartermaster Stevens, who returns to "tender his resignation"—the commission he received from Gov. Randall not being recognized by the war department. If I may judge from the amount of labor which Mr. Stevens has performed since he left Wisconsin with the fifth regiment—"in season and out of season"—up to the last hour of the last day of his service, there certainly would seem in this particular case, a partly plausible necessity for the office of "assistant quartermaster!" so that Gov. Randall's action in the case may have been as reasonable as are the war department's general "regulations." And if I may further judge from what I have heard from many of the officers of the regiment, of the acceptable and efficient manner in which Mr. Stevens has performed his duties, the disappointment which this informality has occasioned is full as severely felt by the regiment as by himself. One thing I will venture on my own responsibility—that his return to Wisconsin is not in any sense a "backing down" from a determination to make himself useful to the government in the present crisis, but rather to take a new start, in such a way as that his position, whatever it may be, shall be understood and accredited.

The news from western Virginia, Missouri and Kentucky, by late dispatches, is brightening the face of things here remarkably. Fremont telegraphs "the first gun in Kentucky in position!" Let the rebels strengthen their ramparts speedily. Let Pillow "dig his ditches" on the right side! for when Kentucky opens her batteries, there will be no party. "Neutrality" will give place to aggressive, radical, continued action, till not a rebel foot-print is left to disgrace her soil.

There are ominous signs here; unquestionably things are ripening fast, and the harvest may have commenced before you receive this.

Excuse haste, as the train leaves in a few minutes.

Yours truly, A. G. —.

The Memphis Appeal thus notifies Kentuckians of the purpose of the secessionists regarding the state:

"THE SOUTH NEEDS HER TERRITORY, AND MUST HAVE IT, THOUGH AT THE PRICE OF BLOOD AND CONQUEST."

MR. DICKINSON DECLINES.—The Syracuse Journal of Thursday says:

"We understand that the president of the People's Convention, yesterday received a telegraphic dispatch from Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson, declining any nomination by the convention, and saying that he thought he could be of more benefit to the patriotic cause in another way. In case Mr. Dickinson persists in his declination, the name of Lyman Tremain will probably be substituted as the candidate for attorney general."

MARRIED.

An the Stone School House, in North Johnstown, on FRIDAY, the 20th day of September inst.

At Edgerton, on TUESDAY, September 17th, at 7 o'clock P. M.

Good speakers will be present at the above meetings.

Military Items.

J. J. R. Pease, Esq., chairman of the central military committee, this morning returned from Madison with very important information concerning the regiment now forming from the counties of Rock and Green.

Full authority has been conferred upon H. W. Collnis, Esq., secretary of the committee, to act as agent for the quartermaster general, to establish and fit up the camp for the regiment.

Tents have already been ordered here, a part of which will arrive to-day, and the residue during the week. Blankets will be furnished, and the uniforms will follow as fast as the quartermaster's department can furnish them.

We have news also from Albany, Green county, that the people there are in earnest—working with a will for a company.—They promise one of eighty men in ten days. Indications now are all favorable for a full regiment at an early day. Let the enlistments go on.

CAUCUS IN THE FIRST WARD.—The caucus was called to order by S. J. Belton. W. B. Strong was elected president, and A. A. Jackson, secretary.

On motion of S. J. Belton the caucus proceeded to the election of delegates, viva voce. W. B. Strong, Nat. Parker, John R. Bennett, S. J. Belton, A. A. Jackson and Volney Atwood were elected delegates to the city convention.

The meeting then adjourned.

A. A. JACKSON, Sec'y.

THIRD WARD CAUCUS.—The third ward caucus met pursuant to notice. E. A. Howland was called to the chair, and S. L. James, secretary.

The following were elected delegates to attend the city convention:—S. J. M. Putnam, A. K. Allen, John C. Hemmens and E. A. Howland.

E. A. HOWLAND, Ch'n.
S. L. JAMES, Sec'y.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—The members of the Janesville City Zouaves elected officers for the company last evening, as follows:

Ed. E. Woodman, captain.
James L. Murray, 1st lieutenant.
Geo. C. Brown, 2d lieut.
J. W. Hall, 1st sergeant.
Wm. Burns, 2d serg't.
H. T. Wright, 3d serg't.
Van. E. Huginan, 4th serg't.
L. S. Miller, 5th serg't.
Davis Cheney, 1st corporal.

THE COUNTY FAIR.—The weather is very fine for the county fair, and the entries so far have been in goodly numbers. The programme for to-morrow is as follows:—The books will be closed at noon and handed over to the committees. The walking match will take place at 10 A. M.; the ladies' riding match at one P. M., and the boys' riding match at two P. M.

NO CAUCUS IN THE SECOND WARD.—In consequence of no notice having been handed in for publication of the caucus to be held in the Second ward for the election of delegates to the city convention for electing delegates to the state convention, there was no meeting. The committee have appointed Saturday, the 21st, for the day of the meeting.

TENTS.—Thirty tents for the Rock county regiment will be received here this afternoon or to-morrow.

FOURTH WARD CAUCUS.—The republicans of the fourth ward met at the office of J. W. Storey, this afternoon, pursuant to call of the ward committee, and were called to order by S. Foord, Jr., for the committee, when J. B. Cassoday was named chairman, and S. Foord, Jr., secretary.

On motion, the following gentlemen were elected delegates from this ward to the fifth assembly district convention: H. E. Pattison, S. Holdredge, Jr., J. B. Cassoday, S. Foord, Jr., H. N. Comstock, S. C. Spaulding, G. S. Strasberger and W. A. Eager.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

J. B. CASSODAY, Ch'n.
S. FOORD, JR., Sec'y.

PANORAMA OF THE WAR.—We take pleasure in noticing the return of the grand panorama of the war, which will exhibit in this city during the fair. Our citizens will gladly welcome this fine exhibition to their city, and our country friends can spend their spare time this evening in a manner both instructive and entertaining. This panorama, wherever exhibited has met with success, and we advise all those who have not witnessed it not to let this opportunity pass unimproved.

THE SEVENTH REGIMENT.—We learn that the seventh regiment will not pass through this city to-morrow, as was anticipated.—They will not leave Madison before Thursday, and perhaps not then.

BE CAREFUL.—An ugly hole has made its appearance in the west end of the lower bridge. Its repair should be attended to immediately.

SEVENTH REGIMENT.—The Madison Patriot says: "The 7th Regiment is now full, and the companies are lettered. We hear it said that the regiment leaves Camp Randall for Washington next Wednesday. We give below the field officers and the position of the companies. In doing so we must congratulate the officers on the soldierly bearing of the men, and their excellent behavior while in the city. They conduct themselves as model men and soldiers, and while being a credit to the grand army of the Union, they must be a terror to the foe:"

HOW TO OBTAIN THE GENUINE FLAVOR OF COFFEE.—Knighten's Foreign Life in Ceylon furnishes the following hints derived from long experience, for preparing coffee. The aroma which resides in the essential oil of coffee-berry is gradually dissipated after roasting, and of course, still more so after being ground. In order to enjoy the full flavor in perfection, the berry should pass at once from the roasting-pan to the mill, and thence to the coffee-pot; and again, after having been made, should be mixed, when almost at boiling heat, with the hot milk. It must be very bad coffee, indeed, which, these precautions being followed, will not afford an agreeable and exhilarating drink.

THE SEIZURE OF CONTRABAND PROPERTY.—Under the provisions of the force bill and the confiscation act, the United States authorities in this city have sequestrated between eight and ten millions of property owned in whole or in part by citizens of the rebellious states. This property embraces ships, cargoes, money in bank, bank stocks, railroad bonds and stock, state bonds and merchandise. By order of the secretary of war, the United States marshal and his deputies, from the day of the president's proclamation to the last of the fifteen days grace, were engaged unremittingly in tracing out the ownership of property embraced by the proclamation; and on the last day lodged the information required by law with the district attorney, who forthwith filed the necessary libels, and under the motion of the court, the marshal proceeded to make the seizures. His proceedings were very quietly and cautiously conducted to a successful issue, and the result of his efforts is even greater than the government anticipated.—New York Tribune.

A FORMIDABLE WAR STEAMER.—The Shreveport Daily News says:

"In yesterday's paper we alluded to the launching of the boat built opposite New Orleans for the purpose of attacking the enemy's men-of-war. The boat is the length of an ordinary steamboat, the roof being arched in shape, covered with railroad iron, so as prevent balls from penetrating, and the balls in striking will immediately glance off without any effect, let the position of the gun fired be what it may. At the bow of the boat is a ponderous cutter, made of the best steel, the object of which is to cut a vessel in two. This will require a very great power, which the projectors think they have obtained in the way of two powerful engines. The mode of attack is with hot water, which is thrown through hose attached to the boilers. The vessel attacked cannot keep her men on deck, nor can she use her cannon, as they will be kept wet by the water thrown. Besides being covered with the heavy iron, the boat is built of the heaviest and best timber. The boat has been taken down the river with a view of letting the fort fire on her."

EXTRAORDINARY CONVERSION.—Joshua Ridgeley, the disloyal hotel keeper, who resides about seven miles east from La Crosse, has become converted to the federal faith. He came to the city to-day and passed the forenoon as usual. He publicly expressed the desire that the La Crosse Artillery volunteers might be destroyed in battle, and not be permitted to return alive. He was promptly escorted to the armory, where he took the oath of allegiance. His next appearance was at the head of the artillery company as it passed up Main street.—Joshua carried the United States flag amid the plaudits of large crowds of citizens, who signified their joy over his sudden conversion to the loyal cause by hearty cheers. It is said some other persons will soon be invited to imitate the example of Joshua.—La Crosse Republican.

A DEATH IN THE CAMP.—A soldier named Alfred H. Casson, of Fall River, belonging to the Columbia Co. Cadets, died at Camp Randall yesterday, after a brief illness, of typhoid fever. He resides in Milton, Rock county. His mother, having a presentiment that her son was sick, arrived in Camp on Friday, and was present relieving with her tender care the last hours of her patriotic son. He was only 19 years of age.—This is the first death that has taken place in the camp, and casts a deep gloom over the soldiers now there. The funeral of young Casson took place at the camp this afternoon at 4 o'clock, attended with military honors.—Madison Journal.

MAT CARPENTER "READ OUT."—The Milwaukee News reads Hon. M. H. Carpenter out of the democratic party for having expressed himself in favor of prosecuting the war even to the extent of the abolition of slavery. It says, "we propose to have very little to do with such democrats.—Their people are not our people, and their nigger is not our god."—Chicago Tribune.

THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER ON FREMONT'S PROCLAMATION.—The Cleveland Plaindealer, the leading democratic paper in Western Ohio, speaking of Fremont's style of carrying the war into Africa, says:

"We believe this measure of Fremont's calculated to have the happiest effect, and subscribing literally to every war measure which shall have for its aim the speedy termination of this most unhallowed strife, we look forward now to the breaking of light through the mists which have hitherto surrounded the future."

The members have received their uniforms entire: some twenty-five more men are needed to fill the company to the required number. Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The Large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS, - - $450,000

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,000,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

CHAPTER 242.

AS AMENDED BY CHAPTER I, EXTRA SESSION.

AN ACT to amend the General Banking Law, and the several acts amendatory thereof.

The People of the State of Wisconsin represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes with the thereunto belonging amendment, (see chapter 95 of the general laws of 1858,) is hereby amended as follows: by striking out the following words: "Said stocks to be valued at a rate to be estimated and governed by the average rate at which said stocks have been sold in the city of New York, within the next six months preceding the time when such stocks may be left on deposite with the comptroller." By striking out the words "equal to," and inserting after the words "not exceeding," the words "in value." By striking out the following words: "But such public stocks shall in all cases be, or be made to be equal to a stock producing six per cent per annum; and it shall not be lawful for the bank comptroller to take such stock at a rate above its par value, nor above its current market value in the city of New York at the time of deposite, by such person or association of persons;" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stock which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks; but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks;" so that the said section shall henceforth read as follows: "Whenever, hereafter, any person or association of persons, formed for the purpose of banking under the provisions of this chapter, shall duly assign and transfer in trust to the treasurer of this state, any portion of the public stocks issued or to be issued by the United States or any state stocks, on which full interest is annually paid, such person or association of persons shall be entitled to receive from the bank comptroller an amount of such circulating notes of different denominations, registered and countersigned, and not exceeding in value the amount of public stocks assigned and tranferred as aforesaid: and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stocks, which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks, but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks: Provided, that if in the opinion of the bank comptroller, together with the governor and the secretary of state, any stocks offered shall be deemed insecure, they shall not be received as such securities under the provisions of this act; and provided, further, that from and after the first day of December, 1861, the bank comptroller shall not receive as security for circulating bank notes, any other public stocks than those issued by the state of Wisconsin and the United States.

SEC. 2. Any public stocks described in the preceding section, and issued at a rate of interest less than five per cent per annum, to be receiveable by the bank comptroller, shall be made to be equal to stocks producing five per cent per annum.

SEC. 3. Section 40 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, is hereby amended by inserting between the words "located" and "to," in the 19th line of said section, the words "or to the judge at chambers."

SEC. 4. Every bank and banking association now organized in this state, and all banks and banking associations that shall be organized before the 1st of day December, 1861, except such banks and banking associations as are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall, on or before said first day of December next, appoint an agent, who shall keep an office in the city of Milwaukee or in the city of Madison, for the redemption of all circulating notes issued by such bank or banking association, which shall be presented to such agent for payment or redemption.

SEC. 5. The appointment of such agent shall be made in writing, and such written appointment shall be delivered to the bank comptroller on or before said first day of December next, who shall file the same in his office. If any bank or banking association shall neglect or refuse to appoint such agent within the time above mentioned, the bank comptroller shall appoint such agent for such bank or banking association.

SEC. 6. The bank comptroller shall, immediately after said first day of December next, during such time as he may deem advisable, publish a list of such agents in one daily newspaper published in the city of Madison, and in one daily newspaper published in the city of Milwaukee, the expense whereof shall be equally divided among the several banks or banking associations so published, and be paid by them to the comptroller on demand, under penalty of forfeiture of one hundred dollars, to be collected and applied as provided in respect to the forfeiture named in section 19, chapter 71, of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 7. Every bank or banking association hereafter organized, shall before receiving any circulating notes from the bank comptroller, appoint an agent for the purposes of this act: and such appointment shall be immediately published in the manner aforesaid, at the expense of such bank or banking association, to be collected in the manner above provided.

SEC. 8. Appointments of agents made in pursuance of this act, may be revoked and new appointments of agents made from time to time, by delivering such revocation and appointment to the bank comptroller, who shall cause the same to be published as before provided.

SEC. 9. It shall be lawful for any number of banks or banking associations, authorized by this act, to appoint an agent to associate together for raising a joint fund, to be placed in the hands of their common agent for the redemption of their circulating notes, in the city of Milwaukee or Madison, and also the circulating notes of other banks in such manner, and under such regulations as may be agreed upon, and to employ such agents and clerks as they may deem necessary to carry on the business of such common agency; but nothing in this section contained shall authorize the redemption or purchase by such agency of any circulating notes at a rate of discount greater than is herein provided for, nor relieve such banks from any duty or liability required or imposed by this act.

SEC. 10. Every such bank or banking association in this state, except such banks and banking associations as now are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall redeem and pay on demand, in the lawful money of the United States, all circulating notes issued by such banks or banking associations, presented for redemption at the office of the agent of such bank or banking association, during the usual hours of business of bankers, between the hours of ten and three o'clock, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent.

SEC. 11. Every bank or banking association, whose agent shall neglect or refuse to redeem its notes on demand, as aforesaid, shall, on proof being made to the bank comptroller of such neglect or refusal, by the affidavit of the person who presented said notes for redemption or payment, and on depositing in his office the notes so presented, be subject to the same penalties, and be proceeded against in the same manner, as is now provided by law for cases where the circulating notes of any bank or banking association are protested for non-payment, unless the comptroller shall be satisfied that there is a good and legal defence against the payment of such notes.

SEC. 12. Every bank and banking association shall redeem its circulating notes as now provided by law, but in case of neglect or refusal to redeem its notes on presentation at its counter, and of protest therefor, such bank or banking association, if not located within the city of Milwaukee or the city of Madison, shall not be liable to the holder of such notes for damages: Provided, it shall within fifteen days after receiving notice from the comptroller to pay the same, redeem said notes in the lawful money of the United States, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum; Provided, that the officer or officers of such bank or banking association so neglecting or refusing to redeem its notes on demand, may endorse upon the bills or package of bills so presented, an acknowledgement of such presentation and refusal, and waiving protest upon the same; and such endorsement shall be held as evidence of the statement therein made.

SEC. 13. No bank or banking association shall hereafter receive upon the deposite of bonds, circulating notes to an amount exceeding three times its bona fide cash capital actually paid in, and the bank comptroller is hereby authorized and required to ascertain what the actual cash capital of any bank or banking association applying for circulation, except in exchange for mutilated bills, may be, and for this purpose he is authorized to examine any person on oath, and to compel answers under oath, from any officer or stockholder of any bank or banking association so applying, or any other person.

SEC. 14. No bank or banking association shall hereafter be organized in this state, nor shall any more circulating notes be issued to any bank or banking association in this state, unless said bank or banking association shall have a bona fide cash capital of at least fifteen thousand dollars actually paid in, which shall remain in such bank or banking association as capital, and employed in legitimate banking at the place where the bank is located: and it is hereby declared that the bonds deposited with the bank comptroller shall not be considered as any evidence of the existence of capital in any such bank or banking association, nor of the amount and extent of such capital; and it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller, before issuing any more circulating notes to any such bank or banking association now organized, or that shall be hereafter organized, except in exchange for mutilated notes, to satisfy himself by an examination under oath of an officer or stockholder of such bank or banking association that it has fully complied with the provisions of this section, and of the next preceding section of this act, and for the purposes of such examination the comptroller, or in his absence the deputy comptroller, is hereby authorized to administer oaths: Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to permit any bank to issue circulating notes to any greater amount than its nominal capital.

SEC. 15. From and after the first day of December next it shall not be lawful for any bank or banking association, banker, broker, company or corporation, to circulate or attempt to circulate, or to pay out as money, any bill, note or other evidence of debt, issued or purporting to have been issued by any bank, banking association, company, corporation or individual located or residing out of this state, unless said bill, or note or evidence of debt shall, for the last six months preceding such circulating or paying out, have been redeemable in the city of New York or Boston in current money of the United States, at a rate of discount not exceeding three fourths of one per cent; and the decision of the bank comptroller as to the rate of such discount shall be final and conclusive. Every bank or banking association, banker or broker, corporation or company, offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit for each and every offense the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with costs of suit in the name and for the use of any person who shall sue for the same and prosecute such suit to judgment in any court having cognizance thereof.

SEC. 16. Each and every person owning or holding stock in any bank or banking association, who shall sell, transfer or assign his stock or any portion thereof, in any such bank or banking association, shall be held, and remain for the term of six months from and after such sale, transfer or assignment, as aforesaid, personally liable to the amount of stock so as aforesaid sold, transferred or assigned by him for the payment of all the debts and liabilities of such bank or banking association, existing at the time of such sale, transfer or assignment.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

SEC. 18. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with, or in any way contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 19. At the general election to be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, in the year 1861, at all the usual places of holding elections in this state, for the election of all officers required by law then to be elected, the question whether this act shall become a law and go into effect, or in any manner be in force, shall be submitted to the people, and if the same shall be approved by a majority of all the votes cast on the subject, it shall go into effect; otherwise, it shall not go into effect nor be in force.

SEC. 20. The votes cast on the subject specified in the last preceding section shall be by separate ballot, and shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, on each of them, the words: "For Amendments to the Banking Law;" or "Against Amendments to the Banking Law," which words shall indicate the vote for or against the approval of this act; and the ballots so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as the votes cast for state officers are required by law to be canvassed, and the secretary of state shall immediately, on the completion of said canvass, publish a statement of the result thereof in the official state paper, and shall communicate the same to the next legislature at the commencement of the session, and he shall also deliver to the state treasurer a certified copy thereof, with a statement of the result of the canvass upon the subject immediately after the completion of the canvass.

Chapter 242, approved April 13, 1861; Chapter 1, Extra Session, approved May 25, 1861.

Said election to be conducted, the votes canvassed and returns made in accordance with the provisions of chapter 7 of the Revised Statutes of 1858.
